LETTER

Dear Sir,

While my husband and I were in Las Vegas we enjoyed reading your newspaper "Las Vegas Israelite."

We drove 1700 miles to see Frank Sinatra and enjoyed his show very much. However, we had to leave Las Vegas before your paper came out containing a review of his show. Being such a big fan of Mr. Sinatra I would like to know what the reporters had to say about his opening and also about his family and friends moving from Hotel to Hotel all evening. We thought it was very exciting.

I would like for you to please send the paper containing the reviews. I'm enclosing 25¢ which I hope will cover the cost of the paper and mailing.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Paul H. Fischer

P. S. I told my husband a year's subscription to your paper would be a nice present for him to give me.

(ED. NOTE: We're sending paper you requested. Also putting your name on list for all future issues, hoping your husband will break down and include a subscription to Israelite along with the mink coat we know he wants to surprise you with. J. T.)

cats in the country will converge in Las Vegas for the weekend competition, and will be vying for top show honors and for points toward national cat of year awards.
