

OF THE STARS

PAUL GILBERT, ONE OF THE WORLD'S TOP COMEDIANS, OPENED HIS MUSICAL COMEDY REVUE AT THE DESERT INN'S LADY LUCK LOUNGE. THE PAUL GILBERT SHOW IS PRESENTED TWICE NIGHTLY AT 11:30 P.M. AND 2 A.M.

and still is doing for Israel. Since the Major has such a good name for his shooting and hunting ability Irene Asbyll asked him if he ever hunted Bear. His reply was funny: "No I always wear clothes."

Just got word from Joe Glaston that the Fremont Hotel starts its 14th anniversary to-night. This is going to be an all out fun celebration with gifts galore, plus a wonderful show with George Gobels and sue Raney. Please don't miss it. My Miriam is very enthused about Pat and Artie who take care of the card room when she is playing Pan. I have never seen a busier card room. Could it be because they are nice to people? I think so.

Incidentally when I give my wife an argument about Pan, she tells me that Pan taught women concentration and self control. I reply to her that it also taught women how to open cans and go to FOXYS delicatessen to pick up a meal.

T'Bird P.R. man Vince Anselmo is very excited about under the Yum Yum Tree, we don't see why not. Look at this magnificent cast, Gardner McKay, Virginia Mayo, Robert Q. Lewis and Patty McCormack. This hit show is good enough to go on with newcomers but the T'Bird went all the way and got top performers to make sure that they have a hit on their hands. We predict a long run because this show is fun all the way.

More Kabaret Next week.

YUM-YUM AT T-BIRD

Three noted entertainers made their Las Vegas debut Wednesday evening in the Continental Theatre of the Thunderbird Hotel when the curtain rose to the Broadway laugh-getter, "Under the Yum-Yum Tree."

A fourth member of the all star cast, blonde beauty Virginia Mayo, was making her second appearance on the T-Bird stage.

For the Thunderbird, "Under the Yum-Yum Tree" continues the resort's current Broadway show policy, with performances at 8 p.m.

- dinner and midnight.
