SUNSHINE

KIRSCHNER OVERS ABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

November 7th is a day to remember for Ennio Bolognini's friends and admirers. tomorrow this world famous Cellist starts his 76th year. His stint at Caesars Palace keeps him busy 7 days per week and besides this he does his charity and symphonic work. He attributes his health and vitality to wine, women and song. Happy Birthday Ennio, please continue to entertain us.

Very good friends, the Herman Karps of Beverly Hills, raved about the Flesh (Line Renaud) show at the Bonanza. They thanked me for recommending this fast fascinating miniature musical extravaganza.

Sol Wolf apparently isn't very enthusiastic about doctors. He claims that a medic promised Sol would get well as it cost him every cent he had.

The Bingo at the Landmark is a lot of fun. This is what the girls that are Bingo Buffs tell me. The last time I played Bingo was in the Catholic Churches in New York and Atlantic City. I always used to win floor and table lamps. My donation to the synagogues were, of course, floor and table lamps. The payoff was that the congregations had to get a Catholic Kid to light the lamps on our Sabbath day. What a parlay.

Vi and Fred Gorte phoned to tell about their wonderful visit to Hawaii with our Rebel football team. This is what I call real loyalty. These two are dedicated to so many charities that they work hard for. We are proud to call them friends.

Clarence Hoffman, the ringmaster at Circus Circus tells me that Mr. Feld, president of the greatest circus in the world, Barnum and Bailey, was in for a visit with the performers. Mr. Feld liked the show and he is right. This is why we encourage our out-of-town visitors to make Circus Circus a must must stop.

Irving Haut, my favorite C.P.A., tells me that he believes in the old adage that Time heals all wounds. But it sure makes you look old.

Hank Kovell has been raving about the food in the New Frontier Steak House. We must agree, their new baked potato's are a must for us starch lovers. Incidentally when I ask Fat Jack why most heavy-set people are so good natured, he explained "we can neither fight nor run."

When Frank Robb came in late for work last week at my Master Furrier shop, I phoned his wife and Irene explained that he had forgotten to change the clock and as she said; "What can you expect from an Olter Clocker?"

A STAGEFUL OF BEAUTIFUL SHOWGIRLS PARADE IN DAZZLING FASHION DURING THE 'HOLLYWOOD' PRODUCTION NUMBER IN THE DESERT INN'S MIL-

LION DOLLAR PRESENTATION OF "PZAZZ '70." THE NEW MUSICAL SUPERSPECTACULAR IS NOW IN ITS FIFTH RECORD SMASHING MONTH

That Paul Gilbert's new show at the Desert Inn Lady Luck Lounge is a must. His sense of humor is unparalleled. Just to make sure he will continue as a hit he has surrounded himself with gorgeous gals and his taste is good.

Sam and Edith Rosenberg came in to visit and explained that they just had a thrilling fun trip to visit the kids in Santa Monica. Believe it or not they both said that the trip was extra pleasant because they took separate buses. This proves that true hate will win out.

We owe an apology to Barbara Pardini, outstanding dancer, who was reported as being part of another show.

We hope you folks who visit Caesars Palace will stop by to say hello to Label Snow sometimes known as Larry Snow. His wife Ann has to be the nicest person we have ever met. If you like Baccaret, or want to learn all about it, stop by to say hello to Joel Snow. He goes out of his way to be extra nice when he explains the game. Joel is an eligible bachelor so bring your daughters for inspection on weekdays when Joel is free from work and worry. I'm jealous of Larry because he has such a wonderful family.

Hey don't miss the Lynne Davis opening at the Sahara on November 10th. This pretty local girl really sings up a storm so lets all show up to greet her in style.

When I asked Smarty Marty Kane about his brother he explained that he was a politician. When queried what did he run for Marty says: "He ran for the border."

At the urging of Jimmy the Greek Snyder we had a wonderful evening with music and entertainment at the Landmark. Frankie Avalon and the "Unusual We", is a good show downstairs, then upstairs for extra pleasure with the Tower Sweets and my special favorite Fay McKay.

Ed Rubin tells the story about the violinist who asked his doctor if he could start playing after the operation. The doctor said "I can't guarantee the violin, but the last operation like this had my patient playing the Harp in 24 hours."

We are all looking forward to the return of Danny Kaye November 10th at the International. Don't fail to visit him. If you have trouble getting in tell Emilio the Maitre D' you are a friend of mine or ask Mr. Vernon in charge of the Baccarat. "Come - On - A - My - House" Rosemary Clooney is back in the Tropicana Blue Room. This hangout for sweet music is lots of fun late at night. The entertainers relax there in the wee hours.

Niece and nephew Zel and Dr. Bill Berk are at the Sahara for their October visit and rave about the nice treatment afforded them by Host Frank Portnoy. Frank is a credit to our community and when this Dallas contingent goes back home they will spread the word about the wonderful Las Vegas hospitality. Incidentally Doc Berk tells a typical Texas story about the time he told a lady he would have to paint her husband's throat with silver nitrate. She remarked: "use gold doctor we can afford the best."

More Kabaret next week.
