

LAS VEGAS SHOWGAS

KIRSCHNER OVERS ABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

I guess next week being Thanksgiving we had better start adding up all the good things about this country of ours instead of the violence and marches that we went through this past year. Never having been out of these United States we have to rely on the news media for life in other parts of the world. Living must be horrible in Cuba. But this is the question: Why do they hi-jack planes to Cuba and they don't hi-jack planes to our country? The trip to the moon cost Billions when the same money would have eliminated the slums in our 10 major cities. Well, anyway we proved that the moon isn't made of green cheese.

Anne Frank can't understand why Nassers mother and father didn't practice Birth Control.

Cool clever and talented young man Frank Sinatra Jr. was honored last week. The Circle F Theatre in the Frontier was jammed on his opening night. We were especially pleased because this young guy has the pose and Voice to go all the way. He is a credit to Las Vegas as proven by the magnificent TV show he made in Las Vegas. Must thank Hank Kovell for inviting me to help do the honors.

I get a kick out of one of my former salesmen who joined the police force. When I asked Dave why he said "I always wanted a business where the customer is always wrong. (How about that George Franklin?)."

That Las Vegas Sun has so many experts picking football losers, when do they have time for the news? Do you know that if you parlayed all the winners that Peerless Price and Jimmy The Greek gave you for the past few weeks you would never have to worry about middle age spread because you would be starving to death. Incidentally Poor Paul has an assistant, G. L. Vitto who has to use my good friend Dr. Fink's son to help him pick losers. I remember last year G. L. was on a winning streak. He picked one in a row. Scotty Ferer just got into the act and also has become a prognosticator. May the Good Lord watch over these nice guys, because as of now we have set up a group of investors that are using their selections so we can bet against their misguided opinions. The enormous efforts will probably be able to buy a couple of newspapers.

My favorite handicapper is still my wife Miriam. She has a special pin she uses and I haven't been stuck yet. I guess I better leave the football scene and apologize for some of the bad stories we have been telling you. If you have a good story just send it to Master Furriers in the Somerset Shopping Center, which is my office and it will be used if it is clean and also humorous. Our present story suppliers are falling behind. Please write.
