

OF THE STARS

THE HAPPY ENDING TO "UNDER THE YUM-YUM TREE," THE SMASH BROADWAY COMEDY BEING HELD OVER AT THE THUNDERBIRD HOTEL THROUGH DEC. 16. GARDNER MCKAY AND PATTY MCCORMACK, ON THE LEFT, AND VIRGINIA MAYO AND ROBERT Q. LEWIS STAR IN THE HILARIOUS PRODUCTION WITH SHOWTIMES AT 8 P.M. AND MIDNIGHT.

one. Troubador Trini thrills the listeners. He is great.

Hair at the International starts next month. They charge $7.50 while Nino the Barber at the Dunes, only charges $3.00 for a hair job. But of course Nino keeps his clothes on, and that's what makes the difference.

Betty Grable is starring in "Born Yesterday" which opens in the Pheasant Run Playhouse in St. Charles, Illinois. Show opens November 25th. Send her note, she'd love to here from her friends and neighbors in L.V.

When I asked Smarty Marty Kane how cum he was wearing one red sock and the other black, he gave me the very intelligent reply! "Do you know I have another pair just like this at home?" Incidentally Marty Kane is at the Hollywood Race book downtown. Please visit him.

This reporter believes that Harley Harmon is going the political route in 1970. Methinks he is going to take a shot at the Mayor's slot in Las Vegas. All I can say about Harley is that he has in the past proven to be a good administrator in his insurance and his banking affiliation. Even Tom De Kester thinks he's a good man.

Must tell you about a warm and great guy, Sid Wyman executive in the Dunes Hotel. Not only do the top executives respect him, but whenever even the lowliest employee in this fine hotel tells me that he is a fine, fair saure guy, thats enough for me. His ready smile and his friendly attitude has endeared him to all local people. We are happy that Sid Wyman is part of the nicer people on the Las Vegas Scene. We Jews have a word for high class people, its Menchlichkeit.

Frank Robb tells me that he heard so much about the high cost of loving he decided to go home to his wife.

We're sorry that we missed the opening of Marty Robbins at the Fremont Hotel but we caught him late the other night and he is better now then when he appeared at the Bonanza. This guy can sing every type of song and do it well. The comedy guy, Dave Madden (from the Laugh In) does a great job. Here is two hours of good entertainment.

Lenny the Deli man in Somerset reminded me of an old remark that has been used for many years when you make a date. "I'll see you on Thursday if I live, if not I'll see you Friday."

Jimmy Grippo's niece and nephew Dr. and Mrs. Eugene De Felice are here for a visit from Morristown, New Jersey. Our Jimmy is the greatest prestigater (whatever that means) and is also fantastic with a deck of cards. He hosts the Ceasars Palace Gourmet Room. While we are discussing card experts we were reminded about the time that a professional card sharp got up from the poker table and said "I quit, you guys aren't playing the cards I dealt you."

We people in the Somerset Shopping Center are very happy that Raul the Tailor is our neighbor. He acts as our interpreter seeing he is the only one in the area who speaks Spanish fluently. I made the normal mistake and took French in high school only because the French teacher was a pretty lady and the Spanish teacher was a nice guy with a moustache.

The Ice Capades is a must for everybody. We haven't missed one for several years. We're making our reservations right now.

Another high class guy is Izzy, the beauty salon operator at Caesars Palace. We're just repeating what the people who work for him tell me. This reporter only knows Izzy by his charity works. He has never turned us down when we asked him to help a good cause.

Sid Hudson, everybody's favorite cleaner, tells me that he found out that his Chinese Checker game was made in Japan. He recalls very well when Japan attacked Pearl Harbor. Like everyone we resent the fact that everything we try to buy is made in Japan. We suggest that the American unions try to do something about this unfair competition.

The most fun once a year from our Teple is the Mens Club Gin Rummy Tournament on November 22nd. Everybody wins because you meet all your friends. If you have no friends come anyway because you'll make friends. We know that the food served is always delicious and we hope they use Foxy's again this year.

TRINI

Trini Lopez returns to the Landmark Hotel and from the peaks of advance reservations, fans of the fiery Latin star will once again pack the Landmark Theatre during the three weeks of his enagement.

Funnyman Foxy Villa wins

because Abe's food is always a little bit better. Please meet me there at the Temple Saturday at 7:30 p.m. and we would enjoy introducing the newcomers to the wonderful people who dedicate themselves to the Temple.

Love that Channel 5 promotion (Watch Channel Five come alive). The policy of late late shows with good movies makes this a TV stop to watch. For viewers this means that the other channels will have to update their movies.

Burlesque must be important because the following hotels found out that it fills their showrooms.

Trini for this Landmark date -- a waning nightful parlay if there ever was one.

Level 5 river conductor Ray Sinatra, orchestra, Trini Lopez and Foxy Villa star in the Landmark Theatre through Dec. 10. Showtimes are 8:15 and midnight.

Aladdin Circus Circus Silver Slipper and also the Burlesque treatments at the Bonanza and the other hotels that play up the nude look. New doctor Sam Abrams is very enthused about the Nude shows. He claims its like a first year course in anatomy (a Machays).

Martin Black's new morning radio show is very entertaining and will get better as soon as they fix the telephone lines. Welcome home Martin as they sing in a national anthem. long may you rave.
