

SAMMY AT SANDS

Sammy Davis, Jr. will be "doing his own thing" at the Sands for four weeks in the new show for his thirtieth appearance at the Sands in twelve years.

The versatile Davis will hold over for the Sand Anniversary period and will star in the special Sands Anniversary show Friday, December 12. With Sammy will be George Rhodes conducting the Sands orchestra.

Also featured will be Blinkky, one of the brightest, new comedian acts in show business today and Altavese and Her Girls.

PETE AT TROP.

Las Vegas' favorite jazz clarinetist -- Pete Fountain -- brings his rambling style into the Blue Room of Hotel Tropicana Friday, in a three-week booking expected to draw turnaway crowds.

Fountain's swinging sounds set new Blue Room records earlier this year in one of two annual dates at the posh Tiffany of Las Vegas. Seldom willing to leave his Bourbon Street Bistro in the New Orleans French Quarter, Fountain will perform with his full compliment of New Orleans specialists.

Among the all-star lead men are Oliver (Stik) Felix, Eddie Miller and Jack Sperling, all of whom were christened in the soulful wail of New Orleans jazz.

Spelling Fountain's group in the Blue Room will be lovely Bach-Yen, the Saigon songbird, and The Sound Arrangement.

The final curtain rings down on the 1969 Folies Bergere on December 18 while the 1970 edition is being polished for a Dec. 24 opening.

Opening in the Blue Room Dec. 12: Xavier Cugat & Charo.

BB UNTIL JAN. 15

Circus Circus in Las Vegas has inked "Nudes in the Night" star Babette Bardot for an additional 10 weeks in the hit show in the Hippodrome.

Babette, the world's most sensational exotic dancer, headlines the popular mini-burlesque, which also features a recent addition to the cast, the beautiful exotic dancer, Kashmere.

Both Babette and Kashmere will be appearing at Circus Circus through January 15 in the current edition of the show.

An extra special attraction of the "Nudes in the Night" is the world-famous Klausner Bears riding motorcycles, performing somersaults, dancing, and riding a seven-foot bicycle.

The Klausner Bears replace The Great Bandino in the third edition of the Circus Circus burlesque.

Master of Ceremonies Marty Ma hosts the one-hour show presented nightly at 10 p.m. and midnight with an added 2 a.m. show on weekends. The Marty Heims Trio supplies the musical backing.

Harry Bloomfield, producer of the hit show which is now in its 14th week at Circus Circus, announced that casting is now underway for the fourth edition of "Nudes in the Night."
