KIRSCHNER COVERS KABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

Well Thanksgiving is over and as usual we have many things to be thankful for. Mostly we are thankful for good friends who are decent human beings. We are happy that we don't have enough room to list the creeps that infest this city of ours. While we and other decent retailers pay rent, pay taxes and believe it or not we pay our employees, peddlars are permitted to sneak into hotel rooms all over town to sell jewels, furs and clothing. At my home we receive mail from someone in Hong Kong inviting us to visit a local hotel so that they can sell us junk in womens and mens wear, while in the very same hotel there is a womens and mens wear shop. The sales tax department better find out if these peddlars ever pay taxes? Peddlars also come into our two or three major department stores and do a three day bit, selling junk that a good local store would be ashamed to offer. But the time honored name of these stores has not been tarnished in the public mind. The natives don't know that the former nice departments stores are part of chains that are now hustling for the old fashioned buck. More about this next week with proof.

Getting back to the Strip scene we must agree with Paul Price that Sammy Davis Jr. hasn't retracted his statement that America is N.G. (ED NOTE: Let's wait and see Al, before we jump to any conclusions, J. T.)

Just received a phone call from nutty comic BVEGray. He can't understand why they have to use only white mice for experiments. As he says it "Lets Disintergrate."

The drapery experts from Phoenix were in town and they flipped for that Stardust Lido Show. Laura and Sol Konick had a marvelous evening of fun watching fantastic entertainers do a Broadway show that is too expensive for Broadway. Joe Glaston and I are very happy they enjoyed their stay. My Miriam certainly loved it because she prefers not to cook. Sol Konick swears its true that this guy asked the waitress to please rush an order of burnt toast, overdone scrambled eggs and stale coffee. When the waitress said why not fresh he said, "I'm homesick and want some home cooking."

Everyone is happy they held over "Under the Yum-Yum Tree", at the T'Bird. There are two Yummy Yum Yums, Virginia Mayo and Patty McCormack, that most of the rounders would like to caught under a tree with.

Mike Pisanello (my favorite poker buddy) claims he likes a man that speaks his mind especially if he agrees with me.

Everyone in Las Vegas must have been at the Stardust Palm Room opening. The new room is beautiful. We hope the food served is a sample of what we can expect because it was wonderful. Fay and Maury Roseman (Stardust Executive) were with us while I was gourmet gorging myself. Beisees being nice people to be with, Maury has a delightful sense of humor. He can't understand why Yeshiva University doesn't have a football team because they can call the signals in Hebrew, and besides they can call on the man upstairs if they need a couple of extra points.

Can you imagine Hair creating such a furor? Compared to the Nudity in all the strip shows, this is mild. We don't exactly approve of the B'nai B'rith ladies sponsoring the first performance of this way out show, but then sometimes the sidewalks in front of the synagogue are not always clean.

Must tell you that the Kim Sisters at the Frontier Hotel are still the greatest. Besides talent these girls are beautiful. Bob Newhart with his satirical humor made the Frontier a wonderful stop for the party we had to entertain from New York. The Feldman family claim they can never get a good live show like this back home.

LOVELY LORRETA ST. JOHN, A SINGER IN THE DESERT INN'S MILLION DOLLAR PRODUCTION OF "PZAZZ '70", DOES WHAT SHE DOES BEST - SINGING, DURING ONE OF THE SHOW'S NUMBERS. THE RECORDING * BREAKING MUSICAL IS NOW IN ITS FIFTH MONTH IN THE HOTEL'S ELEGANT CRYSTAL ROOM.

Ladies, we have some bad news for you. Joel Snow is no longer available. We are all looking forward to his will be a happier stop from now on.

Not knowing Jewish tradition that we blow the Shofar on Rosh Hashona, Jewish New Year, The Thunderbird Hotel has scheduled that fantastic show "Come Bloo Your Horn" to open on Xmas Eve. All we can say is that from past reports no one will want to miss this marvelous show.

The Drimmers (Gladys and Bernie) from New York called to thank me for recommending the Casino de Paris show at the Dunes Hotel. Bernie being an importer claims he never imported anything as nice as this. He is in the brassier business and as he attended the late show none of his products was in sight. All I can say to Drimmer is dream on.

Mike Tell is doing a great job bringing in the new in-group sounds for the youth of Las Vegas. We understand that Mike has arranged for the Iron Butterfly to appear here at the Ice Palace on December 6th. Since this reporter cannot attend, our Teenage spy, Johnny Selinsky, is going to do the honors and will give us a review of as he calls it a great, groovey group. Thanks Johnny for helping.

We hesitate to repeat this remark that Sid Hudson made about the boxing club that was being formed. When they asked him what the club's colors should be, Sid Hudson said "Black and Blue."

Dr. West broke us up with the story about asking this lady, "I found out your uncle is an undertaker and you told me he was a doctor." She answered, "You got it wrong, Dr. West, I just said he followed the medical profession".

More Kabaret Next Week.
