Sid Hudson, the best dry cleaning and laundry shop man of them all, was back east celebrating the birth of his first grandson, Evans Hudson Strauss, who came into the world on Oct. 15 in Philadelphia. The other granddad is Moe Strauss, one of the owners of Pep Boys, the auto accessory chain.

Jack Tell wants my readers to know that he loves Anne Pink, one of most dedicated women in the entire Las Vegas Jewish Community, even if she don't like his picture in the paper.

Oh that Henny Youngman is back on the west coast with his Sadie taping TV shows like mad in between personal appearances.

Caesars Palace, the plush Las Vegas hotel - casino which boasts such superstars as Sinatra, Belafonte, Tony Bennett, Petula Clark, Aretha Franklin and the N. Y. Mets, has scored another entertainment coup by signing a supergroup, the popularly and critically acclaimed Blood, Sweat & Tears, to make its Las Vegas debut in concert at Caesars Palace, Dec. 18-20.

The unprecedented three-day engagement was agreed to by Caesars Palace because of the group's tremendous drawing power and because of the tightness of its

University of Nevada, Las Vegas has been chosen for listing in the 1970 edition of "Who's Who Among American Women."

Gene Milligan, Chairman of the Manpower Planning Council announced the appointment of Charles William Green as Executive Secretary of the Council. The Council will coordinate federal and state funds and planning involved in manpower training and development and related services in Nevada as well as attempt to eliminate over-lapping and duplication of efforts in connection with such training and provide unity of direction among the various agencies connected with manpower training programs for the disadvantaged, unemployed and underemployed.

Comedienne Belle Barth, who has carved herself a unique niche in show business history with a mirth-provoking mixture of salty songs and sassy salutations, returns to the Roman Theatre at Caesars Palace Friday, November 28, as headliner for a three-week engagement.

Joining the explosive Miss Barth, and making their Caesars Palace debut on the same Roman Theatre bill will be Cornell Gunter and The Coasters, one of the hottest and most unique vocal and comedy groups in show business.

Anthony Newley and Juliet Prowse will headline the big holiday show following Blood Sweat & Tears into Caesars Palace.

JUDGE LIEBERMAN

The well-known philanthropist, Judge Abraham Lieberman, of Weehawken, New Jersey, has established at The Dropsie University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, an endowment fund of $300,000 for a "Professorship in Jewish and American Law and Jurisprudence."

The son of immigrants who once worked as a newsboy and sold ice cream cones, Judge Lieberman has been devoting his efforts and money to charitable and educational causes.
