KIRSCHNER COVERS ABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

Joyous time is here again - HAPPY HANUKAH! What a wonderful happy feeling that we are living in the United States, Childhood memories prompted me to look for my first connection with Hanukah, I searched for a DREYDLE. It was my first connection with gambling. It was like looking for a dreidle in a haystack. Most Jews who live in Nevada have graduated to Baccarat, Dice and Blackjack. My HANUKAH WISH TO YOU ALL IS BE NICE TO EACH OTHER. (ED NOTE: and read the Israelite J. T.) Just received word that the Circus Circus will be a much nicer place to visit now that Bennie Peters is the Casino manager. He is a nice guy and most people are glad to call him friend.

That Milton Frank (Frontier Hotel) tells me the nuttiest stories. He claims that a guy, who shall remain unnamed, takes his wife everywhere because he can't stand to kiss her good bye.

We are sorry for the girl watchers at the Hacienda. Favorite Topless Nuncie Price is enroute to Acapulco and we have a feeling that Ray Bebo has finally talked our Nuncie into becoming Mrs. Bebo. Well we know that Bebo didn't commit a Bubu. Ray operates Air Nevada so Nuncie can fly for free.

When Bea David came back from Europe we asked how was the wather in London? Her reply shows that Bea has a delightful sense of humor, she said: "It was so foggy I couldn't tell."

Delightful Margie Friedman (Baccarat at the Palace) makes all the girls jealous because she stays so slim and pretty. Her new Sable coat looks beautiful. Yes, its a Master Furrier masterpiece.

If we had waited two more days this would have been Pearl Harbor Day. Pearl Price a very nice lady said: "Do you think if I changed my name to Pearl Harbor could I maybe get that nice handsome Japanese fellow to attack me also?" Please remember that when you buy your next radio set or your next pair of Japanese jockey shorts.

Also remember Hitler the next time you buy a lampshade made in Germany it might just be a relative, relatively speaking.

We will never forget December 7th, 1941. It was before television. We were living in Hollywood We did the normal Sunday bit and ran over to Mama Cohens on Fairfax to pick up the Lox and Bagels at 9 A.M. At home we spread out all this Jewish jazz and added some black olives and sliced onions for a normal Yiddische breakfast.

While the coffee was perking the radio came out with a GESHREY, the Japs just attacked Pearl Harbor. Like all Americans, we were stunned.

One of my best friends, Joe Mayer (Mr. Whiskers), and the Novelites are at the Stardust. He and his crazy musical group break up the lounge audience ever performance.
