Rabbi Sherer is now a resident of Red Bank, N. J. where he is associated with a junior college also conducting Bar Mitzvah, marriages etc. when the time presents itself. I was fond of Rabbi Sherer and hated to see him leave.

Annette Goldfarb has taken unto herself a new husband. She is very happy, looks radiant and beautiful and asks to be remembered to all her friends. Much happiness always to you and your hubby.

Stan Irwin will be producing one-act, off Broadway plays, in New York City.

The Sisterhood Fashion Show, held at the International Hotel, was indeed a financial, social and happy affair. The lucky winner of the money tree was a tourist from Mexico.

Belated Congratulations to Faye & Morris Glazier on their 30th wedding anniversary. Daughters Harriett & Elaine flew in from Los Angeles to make this a happy event.

A very wonderful 25th anniversary was celebrated by Lily & Max Phillips. As a surprise their very popular and pretty daughter Pamela flew in from Los Angeles along with friends from out of town among which were Lily's sisters and their husbands, Albert & Ethel Koulang, Leon & Ann Cohen, Wyllie & June Somers, Joseph Olivestones, Solie Cohens and their daughters Michael & Wendy and the Walter Fletchers. Added to this happy group were the close friends of the Phillips here in town. This indeed was a freilech affair, and I would like to add my good wishes Alvin and Lois Levy plus the little ones enjoying the ocean breezes, in Balboa, California.

Something new has been added. Stained Glass windows leading into the social hall as well as the entry to the temple. They are gorgeous. Hope this was a donation as the cost must run into five figures, and I can think of more important improvements at Temple Beth Shalom. Maybe the members should have some voice in such matters when large sums of money are involved. Laws are being changed in government so why not at Temple.

Las Vegas district auditions for the Metropolitan Opera Company will be conducted January 3 at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. The tryouts, open to any singer or music student with aspirations for singing opera, will begin at 1 p.m. in the social sciences lecture hall. Winners of the district tryouts will compete in the regional auditions in Los Angeles on March 14.

A community workshop in practical politics will be conducted Jan. 16-17 at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. "Agenda for Nevadans - 1970," co-sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Nevada and the UNLV political science department, will be presented Friday evening and all day Saturday on the second floor of the Moyer Student Union.

Nevada Senator Howard Cannon predicted today the President would "reluctantly" sign the tax reform bill, but only after some changes have been made in a House-Senate conference.
