KIRSCHNER COVERS KABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

This is 1970 and we're happy that 1969 is over. All the losers are happy now that the stock market is moving their way.

The best show in town if you like good music is at the Fremont. Kathy Grayson and Howard Keel belt out real fine nostalgic tunes. Miriam loves Keel and this reporter appreciates Grayson. The best at the Fremont has to be the lounge where Sloopy holds sway with the Red Barons. This girl is so dynamic that we get tired just as if we were doing her gyrations with her. When you visit Sloopy please make sure to ask her to do the Minuet. All we can say is what a girl, what a sho.

When our favorite girl in the sleek Zenia had laryngitis and lost her voice, our Master Furrrier Frank Robb said "Her husband has all the luck."

Our D. A. George is very busy picking on the naughty nasty shows that might con-timinate our young ones. Peerless Paul is busy picking on the State Pen that might contaminate our young criminals. How about everyone getting together to stop the Fairies who are busy contaminating neighborhood children. (and we are not discussing Grimms Fairy Tales).

Just heard that Come Blow Your Horn at the T. Bird is good. We didn't see it yet. We do know however that Jackie Coogan is a fine actor and that Joi Lansing looks delicious. Next week we expect to write a full review after we catch the show.

Mammary is the word for 1970. Loo, it up in your Funk and Wagnall. If the average girl is not Mammitrous she doesn't have a chance in show biz. Tempest Storm proves without a doubt that a bosom friend is generally your best gal of all.

Just got the word that three more peddlars are hustling furs, jewelry and clothing in the very hotels that have retail stores selling these items. One guy according to Ralph Pearl sold 11 mink coats to one showbiz personality. The purchaser claims that she loves Las Vegas. The hotels where she has been making her bucks pays their employees and also pays her. Next year wen we run for office again we promise that you will burn your hands everytime you buy something hot.

Getting back to fun we recommend a stop at the El Cortez. Downtown is fun but the El Cortez and the Horseshoe are the most. El Cortez gives you prizes just because by an accident of birth you are born at the right time. The Horseshoe does it by showing one million dollars in cash. Both these fine spots emphasize geniality and good food. Jackie Gaughan and Bennie Binion are great hosts.

Most of us should be envious of good friend Don Eldrige from Castro Valley California. What a wonderful family he and his Barbara have. They have ten beautiful offspring. They enjoyed staying at the Landmark where they practically had to take over one entire floor. Don is proud of his family and we hope his gambling luck is better when he and his pretty Barbra next visit

Jerry Radstone, Saints and Sinners Master has a pretty wife Helen. She always complains that Jerry wants hotel service around the house but when they visit a hotel he wants home atmosphere. Well Jerry we all love burnt Bagels.

That Xmas Dinner at the Pisanello home was just too much. We feel we ought to change our name to Gourmet Kirschner. Besides my Miriam, the other food lovers were Al Bramlett, Nick Kelly, Mike P. Jr. and his Betty.

Prusta Prosti (unnamed) was asked why she charged less than the rest, her reply was beautiful. "I was made in Japan."

Please come in to see the REPRODUCTIONS OF THE OLD MASTERS in my Master Furrrier Shop. Only an expert can tell the difference. These paintings belong in every home now that for the first time they are so moderately priced. Would you believe it an authentic copy of a Rembrant that cost $600,000 only sells for $50. The frames are beautiful. We and all our friends are using them for gifts. Yes if you think your friends like the better things then by all means gift them with fine ART. After you have seen these art items, please let us know.

Lets all decide that 1970 should be the friendly year, lets all be NICE TO EACH OTHER. Have a Happy.

More Kirshner Kabaret next week.
