Everybody says that columnists must make resolutions for this new year. Well this reporter is making only one resolution and that is not to make any resolutions at all. We liked 1969 and we won't know until the end of the year if we like 1970. My favorite people in 1969 are the people who were nice to each other.

We will never know where the expression that my Mir-aim uses originated. "I worked like a dog all day long" Checked this out with my dog Friday, spent New Years day and carefully observed Friday chasing the neighbors cat for about two minutes and the rest of the day watching our dog sleep. I had to wake our dog to eat her dinner. We would say that we would enjoy leading a dog's life.

Everyone loves the look of luzury. We wish you all had time to come down to see the Art Collection on the right hand wall of the Master Furrier shop. Its like being in the Museum of Art. Every masterpiece is represented. Herman Karp just pointed out that we have no right to criticise our young for their long hair, their beards and the clothes they wear. Herman showed me all the paper money we use and every past presidents picture shows the long hair and my favorite $5 bill shows Abraham Lincoln with whiskers, Perhaps our youth feel if it was good enough for Lincoln and Washington its good enough for us.

Sam Levitt claims that Las Vegas isn't the same as years ago when they had propellor planes. Nowadays with the jet planes you can't threaten to walk into a propellor. He's a nut.

Avisit with Joe Delaney at the Bonanza is a must. We promised that all our readers are going to tease the heck out of friend Joe and do the talk bit.

Dr. Vic Schiller claims its a true story (he's an obsestritian). A lady called up to find out if he makes deliveries on Friday.

Everybody loved the Line Renaud production of "Flesh '70" - This is a fast paced miniature musical. Don't bring the kids, The grownups all raved and we know this is just the beginning of a wonderful career for lovely Line.

A delightful cocktail girl with a lovely Ooo-La-La accent is Liana Muessig (nickname Frenchy). She just returned from a visit to her folks in Paris. Gether to tell you some of her cute stories. She's in the Sultans Table at the Dunes.

When a friend asked Sid Hudson to take a ride in his new plane, Sid the cleaner said "I refuse to jeopardise the life of my wife's husband"

A STAGEFUL OF BEAUTIFUL GIRLS GO THROUGH THE FAST PACED OPENING NUMBER IN THE DESERT INN'S MILLION DOLLAR PRODUCTION OF "PZAZZ '70." THE NEW MUSICAL SUPERSPECTACULAR IS NOW IN ITS SEVENTH RECORD-SMASHING MONTH IN THE HOTEL'S CRYSTAL ROOM. SHOW-TIMES ARE 8 P.M. AND MIDNIGHT.

night at the Landmark as did Zsa Zsa Gabor at the Flamingo. We couldn't write a review on either show because of the press deadline. We would not hesitate to recommend Teresa because she is always good and knows how to belt out a song in her own inimitable style. Gabor is an unknown quantity and we cannot use her silly T.V. appearance as a barometer.

Pzazz '70' revisited at the insistence of the eye specialist L.D. Bronson and his wife Beatrice. Our visit to the Desert Inn was great fun, Pzazz is better than ever and dancing upstairs with Murray Arnold gave everybody extra pleasure. The Herman Karp from
