

Only in Vegas

The beginning of 1970 which should be a Happy New Year, But finds many in this community sad eyed and depressed. Our Dear Lord saw fit to pluck one of our Beautiful Flowers for his garden. Bernice Shiffman has left us. So young, and giving of herself all the time. Her leaving has certainly been unitmely. She has left a void that is deep, and will be felt by many for years to come. Her mourners, among whom are her Parents, Mr. & Mrs. Harry Glorenc, her sister Molly Leibovitz of Reseda, Calif., her brother Fred from San Francisco, her devoted Husband Bud and their two sons Larry & Bob. Interment took place in Woodlawn Cemetery. Sleep well Dear Bernice, all your aches and pains are now gone.

Illness in town is abundant and what should have been a very happy column is a sad one. Ada Block is hospitalized with pneumonia.

Doris Swartz missed her maker by a matter of an inch, when seh was hit by a speeding car, which completely demolished hers. Blanche Friedman is recuperating nicely having undergone heart surgery. Clair Dase spending thime with her family in England, is mourning the passing of her Father. All in all things are not good in our community. So who needs material things as is so often preached, but does one practice what they preach?????

Stacy Stuts is now 15 years old, Happy Birthday Dear.

Others starting the New Year with birthdays are: Susan Laxer, Doris Swartz, Bob Kravitz, Jimmy Katzman, Claudia Ann Kean, Lee Jackman, Rebecca Lynn Feldman (one year, Grandparents are Esther Marber, Sherlock and Sara Feldman) Wendy Beth Kantor (Also one year) Toni Braverman, Trudy Kassell, Dorothy Openham, Susan Hecht, Etta Harmell Jean Robin, Angela Goldring, Reba Saiger, Marge Felman, Micky Waller and Frances Wolf. (More next week).
