KIRSCHNER OVERS KABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

The MEEK shall inherit the Earth. We read this in a bible (not your senator). We made a very careful check of the Clark County Phone book. There are only two Meeks listed. Why don't they get together and start selling stock? The empty seats at the gambling spots proves without a doubt that good aggressive management from a computer office will always fill an empty area with no customers. Our attempted stop at the Dunes Hotel was a waste of time. They were so busy that we couldn't get our car parked. It was just the same at Caesars Palace, Jerry Zarowitz, Larry Snow and the other nice genial people there make sure you feel at home. Nice people are people. The Dunes Hotel has no problems. High Class men like Sid Wyman (hope your cold leaves you) and Bob Rice make this a pleasant stop if you visit Las Vegas. These two outstanding hosts make a stop at the Dunes a must.

Dinner with Durante at the Frontier is a nostalgic must for we that had fun with his antics at the Copa in N.Y. many moons ago. Dick Stabile was leading the orchestra and the Schnozz was breaking up pianos.

Brooklyn and New York now covered with snow and so are the heads of those of us who have a few hairs that have turned white. Going from the main show room into the lounge again subjected us to a complete Italian orchestra supporting Vic Damone. The Frontier was a friendly fun stop. Thank goodness nice guys like Hank Kovell, Milt Frank, Jimmie Moore and Bathhouse Sam are there to greet you and make you feel at home.

When the doc asked Eve Zolotuchen to put the thermometer in her mouth and keep her mouth closed for 15 minutes, Ben whispered to take for that darned thing?"

When Dock Schiller (my favorite obstetrician) was breaking in a receptionist. He happened to be listening to this bit of conversation. "Is the doctor in?" "no"

"When do you expect him?" "I dunno he went out on a eternity case".

Love the reply that Lovable Lenny, the Maitre De at Churchill Downs, gave the lady that boasted her ancestors came over on the Mayflower. "The immigration laws are a little stricter now".

Well astute Joe Kennedy was astute enough to tie up the Haig and Haig Franchise for the United States. This reporter has no right to reopen old wounds.

We were planning a trip to Israel and B.B. Miram (this means big boss Miram) claims that for a few lousy credit cards we could stop off at Rome, London, Berlin or even Auschwitz. Well after giving all these stopovers some thought, Auschwitz is out (we already have a few GERMAN made lamps.) London is out they still haven't paid back for the Boston Tea Party (with lemon). We have no objections to a Rome stopover. Me thinks we will do that. Burt and his Julie Mold claim it is a curtal stop. Burt got real slender when he just returned from Italy. Wouldn't it be real great if the Italian Imports are as nice as he describes them? More Kabaret next week.

The latest edition of the International Directory of Genetic Services, published by The National Foundation-March of Dimes, lists 566 service units -- an almost 50 per cent increase over the 1968 edition.

Intrauterine transfusions of whole blood into unborn babies improve their chances of surviving Rh blood disease, reports the March of Dimes.
