

OF THE STARS

LOVELY ROLANDE BIEBER SHOWS HER MOD WESTERN COSTUME WHICH IS SEEN IN THE OPENING NUMBER OF "PZAZZ '70" AT THE DESERT INN, THE MILLION DOLLOR PRODUCTION IS NOW IN ITS SEVENTH RECORD-BREAKING MONTH IN THE CRYSTAL ROOM.

STARR AND BARR AT FREMONT

Kay Starr, internationally known as the "Wheel of Fortune" lady, brings her magic voice back to the scene of her most recent triumphs--the Fremont Hotel's Fiesta Room in Las Vegas--for a four-week stanza.

It will be another demonstration of the durability and potency of one of the music world's most distinguished sounds. For Miss Starr's memorable voice has rocketed the singer to the top-most rung of the recording and cafe ladder. Millions of people the world over have been thrilled by her stylized belting and song caressing.

Sharing the Fiesta Room spotlight with her will be comic Leonard Barr, who soared to national promience via appearances on Dean Martin's TV show. It was on one of these whows was on one of these shows that Dino revealed that Barr is his favorite uncle and gifted him with his first blue serge suit when they were living in Steubenville, Ohio.

WOODY AT CP

If you dig the swinging sounds of a big jazz band and offer Oles to Latin musical chants, then Caesars Palace is the place to be.

The great Woody Herman and his Thundering Herd and the exciting Brothers Castro (Jorge, Xavier, Walter and Arturo, and no-Castro Rafael) return to the Roman Theatre at Caesars Palace.

The entertaining naturalness of the Brothers Castro stems from three generations of Mexican show-people in their family. Their Latin chants and musical arrangements attract Oles from quiet and smooth numbers to Spanish rock and roll.

Line Renaud's exciting musical revue "Flesh '70" is featured in the afternoons (2:30 and 4:30 p.m. daily, except Thursdays).
