

20 ISRAELIS KILLED
Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine claimed credit for the explosion. One terrorist group said its agents inside Israel were responsible while the other asserted that a commando group had carried out a mission.)
In the island attack, Israeli paratroopers, supported by naval and air force units, captured stormed Shadway and held it for 30 hours. They left the seven-mile long island, located midway between the Egyptian mainland and the Sinai Peninsula, after removing a radar station and other equipment which had been used to monitor Israeli air and sea activities in the area.

Three Israelis were killed in the raid which saw the same type fighting that marked United States attacks on Japanese Islands in the Pacific Ocean during World War II. The Egyptians lost 19 men killed and 62 prisoner. In addition more than 40 other Egyptians were killed when air force planes sank two Soviet-made P 183 torpedo boats guarding the island during the initial assault and Israeli forces on the island sank another Egyptian craft when it tried to carry out a night attack.

A lighthouse on the island was left intact but all other installations and equipment were either removed or destroyed by the Israelis. Military spokesmen said effective use of the island would be denied to the Egyptians and indicated that air attacks would be used for accomplish this.

Egyptian forces reoccupied the island after the Israeli soldiers left, military spokesman said and added that an attempt to resupply Shadwan was stopped by jets. The planes damaged a military supply ship and the

AJC CONDEMNS FRENCH OIL PURSUIT

NEW YORK - The American Jewish Congress condemned France's sale of 100 combat aircraft to Libya as "a shabby pursuit of influence and oil rights among the sheikdoms and dictatorships of the Arab world".
The Jewish group predicted that during French President Georges Pompidou's visit to the U.S. next month, Mr. Pompidou "may expect to see and hear at first hand such expressions of disapproval of French actions as we have sought to voice in this statement".

The Congress called on the French leader "to repudiate his Middle East policy, to lift the arms embargo against Israel and to reassert the traditional French commitment to democratic and human values".
The statement came in a resolution adopted by the Congress' policy-making National Governing Council.

Egyptian had to tow the vessel back.

Israel said it had now sunk six Russian-supplied torpedo boats. The vessels are used to carry Egyptian commandos and explosives on sabotage missions to the Israeli held Sinai.

The Israeli raid into Jordan lasted for 22 hours as a force of two tanks, a number of half trucks and about 400 men, supported by jet fighter-bombers, roamed through the area opposite the Dead Sea on a search and destroy mission. Their efforts were directed against Arab guerrilla bases.
