

LAS VEGAS SHOWBOATS

KIRSCHNER OVERS ABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

Only two more days to my wedding anniversary. A nice nostalgic touch would be a rehash of our wedding night. We found out it can't be done. Rabbi Sherer is no longer in town. The Portrait Room at the Riviera was confiscated (whatever that means) by Dean Martin and is now Dino's Den. I'll be darned if Miriam didn't say "If they change the name to the Portrait Room for one night we'll celebrate our wedding again". We have had lots of fun in Las Vegas and we must say the visitors that save all year for a Vegas Vacation are well rewarded and talk about it all year - and most of them come back. Most of us that live here are lucky because we vacation in Vegas all year round.

Ed Rubin claims its true. That when he asked this lady if her departed husband communicates with her, she said "Certainly he sends all-money every month".

Nino, the Famous barber at the Dunes, claims he will give you a dollar every time he cuts you when he give you a shave. No wonder he is always brodk. He always talks with his hands and he never stops talking. Hotel Cleaner Sid Hudson in the Somerset Shopping center tells the likely tale that he asked Azelrod "Did you forget the $10 you owe me?". Joe said "No - but give me time and I will."

We think its wonderful that nice guys like Bob Rice (Dunes Hotel Exec) finds time to do wonderful work for chairty. Everyone in Las Vegas is proud that he was appointed a trustee of the National Jewish Hospital of Denver. He is very high on our list of Good Guys.

TAL, the bootmaker, told me that this young lady said she woouldn't marry his friend because his legs were too short. Wise guy TAL told her "Don't complain Ingrid, they both reach the ground."

Funny man, Milt Frank (Parvin - Dohrman Exec) when he was first hunting for an apartment was told by this landlord "we run a high class place - no pets - no musical instruments - no children - no parties. Do you have any of these?" Milt said "No - but my fountain pen makes a scratchy sound sometimes" He's a Mechugina - that means he can take his fountain pen into any nut house.

We were so busy gossiping we forgot to tell you that in the past few weeks 9 more Italian restaurants opened. We are still waiting for one Kosher Restaurant to open in town.

Bathhouse Sam Rosen (Pit boss at the Frontier) has a cute wife who tells me a cute story about a girl friend that has hopefully been taking birth control pills for the past three years and nobody bothers her. A likely story?

Frank Portnoy, the friendly host in the Sahara Hotel was right. The combination of Frank Gorshin and Stanley Myron Hnadleman is wonderful. We enjoyed every moment and this is the most important thing, the rest of the audience loved their antics. We reckon that people still love to laugh.

Charles Kandell Sands Executive is raving all over town about Paul Anka and his wonderful accomplishments. We investigated and found out that this young man is great. He sings My Way - my way. Everything he sings sounds a little bit better. His comedic associate Jackie Vernon makes a stop in the Copa Room of the Sands a complete evening. However - there is more. The wonderful sounds by Louis Prima forces you to ask Jackie Heller to squeeze you into the hot spot called the Celebrity Theatre. This is a room where you see everybody in showbiz every night, because it is a must stop if you want to say hello to your friends.

It can't understand why the local gambling authorities are bearing down on preventing telephoned bets to the various race and sports books.

Must compliment the Bonanza Hotel for two good things. Lite It Is, produced by Kirby Stone is good. It moves fast and is wonderful entertainment even for the jaded nuts we run around with. The visit in the same hotel to Joe Delaney is rewarding and we must agree that our friends enjoyed the privilege of conversing on the radio with Joe. The Keno games in progress while we were on the air was very exciting.

The automative convention at the Convention center was great. We enjoyed a tour and never saw a better managed business gettogether. My brother-in-law Sam Levitt was my guide (he was showing Inland Dynatronics) and flew his plane in from New Jersey for this show. Sam claimed that this was an outstanding show. The other exhibitors we met told me that this was the best city for a convention because they could have fun every night after the business of
