that employ people who take payoffs - we just can't do it - the guilty hotel employees that approached me know who we are talking about.

Love that questionnaire the phone company is sending out. Tried to get my friendly neighborhood book (store that is) to place a wager on a basketball game. By the time the phone call actually got through the game was in the second half. Methinks the government agencies would do well to leave wageing alone.

Which reminds me that Sol Wolf after spending some nights out with the boys decided to go home one night and when he called his Eve and asked what's for dinner to-night she said "Poison I'm making". His reply will always be a classic "Only make one portion, I'm eating out with the boys".

Now that Jon Gregory is in town (he just bought a home here) we are going to have an assistant critic. This guy is fantastic when it comes to choreography and handling show. He will have to commute between Vegas and his chores at 20th Century. We are happy that he decided that our town is the show center of the world. More from Jon Gregory next week.

Ralph Pearl's lovely Frau- couldn't attend our Miriam Kirschners birthday party that was planned by her girl firends and the Italian American Sisterhood. Rox is in the Doctors Hospital in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Please drop her a message. Send her a post card and tell her we wish she comes home soon.

Frank Portnoy's wife Marian and Maury Roseman's wife Faye decided to take my better half to a special place where they remove the spot where the action is. Szull Zein Mit Glik. This is an ancient Jewish expression that means "should be with luck".

Just finished a ten minute conversation with Sherrell Dacey (Reach McClinton exec) to find out how his leg was feeling. After a long dissertation about the Circus Circus he finally advised me that his Mom was feeling fine and will be back soon to visit me.

Must thank Miriam's Marc and her Jill for giving me the pleasure of their company for the past weekend. Jack Tell and his pretty Bea made last Saturday night a little more fun.

Corbs Handyman (Irving) did the unpardonable thing. He beat we experts at every game in town. Even Hal Morrell said "We need losers". Nuff Sed.

More Kabaret Next Week.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT - Favorites Phil Harris and Harry James are currently in their fourth appearance together in the Frontier Hotel's Music Hall. Backing up the popular twosome are the Kids Next Door.

COMEDY SONG

An audience could not ask for a more entertaining hour and a half than is currently being presented in the Frontier Hotel's Music Hall Theatre. Favorite songs - favorite comedy-favorite music, showcased by two of show business favorite performers, Phil Harris and Harry James. Harris, dressed in the most mod of garb, opens the show with a short monologue and turns the stage over to twelve singing-dancing youngsters known as The Kids Next Door. The group are a real crowd-pleasers.
