

MIGS DOWN

 ers to stay in their homes. One person opposed the strike force and was killed in a brief exchange of gunfire. No Israeli casualties were reported. Israeli patrols intercepted one band of Arabs crossing the border from Lebanon in another incident and killed five terrorists.

The mission into Lebanon followed a brief strike into Jordan across the Dead Sea in which Israeli forces killed three terrorists, captured three others and seized a large quantity of arms and explosives. The prisoners said that a large force had planned to cross the Dead Sea and rendezvous in the Hebron area for a major mission inside the occupied territories.

In other incidents, two Israelis died of wounds sustained as a result of artillery and small arms fire along the Suez and when two MIG-17s bombed Israeli positions along the waterway.

The two MIGs were downed when an unspecified number attempted to intercept Israeli jets returning to photograph a radar station hit in an earlier attack at Damietta, located 15 miles west of the canal near the Mediterranean Ocean. Two planes raised to 74 the number of Egyptian jets Israel said it has shot down since the end of the Six-Day War.

Israeli officials reported that the United States and other nations have urged Jerusalem to exercise restraint in its actions against terrorists attacking from Lebanon. Beirut was reported to have appealed to the Big Four to prevent any Israeli attack after being warned by Jerusalem against allowing the commandos to freely use Lebanese territory to mount attacks.

Israeli officials said that Lebanese and Jordanian claims that they were not responsible for terrorist activities was denied by the fact that these governments have signed agreements with the commando organizations, thereby giving the guerrillas legal status in their nations.

CASINOS "LUCK OUT"

As we were going to press the Las Vegas Strip was struck by a strike of Culinary and Bartender Unions. It was the first time in history the brilliant lights of the Casinos and hotels were darkened. All hotels closed except the Riviera, Circus Circus and Bonanza. Guests were politely asked to leave as soon as possible and all incoming reservations were cancelled. The Las Vegas Israelite hopes the unions and hotels will get together real soon.
