

Only in Vegas

By

Helene Stadler

Howard & Sandy Indes and their daughter Maura had quite a scare the other afternoon when a pan of grease caught fire in their kitchen, all escaped injury.

Hack & Ethel Schieff, returned from their vacation and entertained their very good friends Pepper & Judy Davis (part of the comedy team of Pepper & Davis) at a "Going Away Brunch" as they were leaving for Australia.

Irwin Kishner very active for the community concert doings.

The Culinary-Bartender strike brought out the wives of many hotel executives to do the cleaning, serving, etc. in all Hotels. It was also a getting to know you party and no one objected to chores.

Dolores Goldstein had a baby shower given for her by hostesses Fran Polick, Peggy Falman and Estelle Levin. About 30 charming dolls attended.

The striking hotels did not stop Teri Rae Mandell from saying "I Do" to Steve Levin. They were married in the Riviera Hotel. More nervous than the groom was Father Jackie. This wedding date was also the anniversary date for the Senior Mandells and Teri said, she could not think of giving her parents anything better, than their seeing her get married on the same date. This was a family affair, else the Mandells would have had to hire the Convention Center, Jackie and Betty know so many people in town and not
