NEW YORK -- The 1972 World Congress of the International SKAL organization is to be held in Israel. SKAL has 350 branches in 90 countries composed of 20,000 leaders in the world tourism industry.

NEW YORK -- The Jewish National Fund today announced that Rene Cassin, Nobel Peace Prize Laureate in 1968, noted French patriot and author of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, has accepted membership on the Haffkine International Memorial Committee. The announcement was made by Rubin R. Dobin, Chairman of Special Projects for the Jewish National Fund, who stated that the International Committee, composed of leaders from every part of the world, have banded together to honor the noted Jewish scientist, Waldemar Mordecai Haffkine, with the establishment of a Memorial Grove to be planted in the hills of Judea in Israel.

WASHINGTON -- B'nai B'rith has reissued a portfolio of historic letters and documents concerning Abraham Lincoln's relations with the Jewish community of his day.

WASHINGTON -- B'nai B'rith announced this week the selection of Ronald Sanders' "The Downtown Jews" as the first recipient of its "B'nai B'rith Book Award."

WASHINGTON -- B'nai B'rith Hille Foundations is offering a free, up-to-the-minute guide to college students interested in visiting, studying or working in Israel.

NEW YORK (WNS)--Israeli Deputy Premier Yigal Allon will launch the 1970 Israel Bond Drive in the United States at an International Inaugural Conference to be held in Miami Feb. 26 - March 1.

NEW YORK (WNS)--The World Jewish Congress has undertaken a special effort in combat Arab propaganda efforts in Latin America against Israel and Zionism but which actually foster anti-Semitism. Officials of the Latin American Jewish Congress noted that the Arab League and Arab embassies were providing considerable financial support for the anti-Jewish campaign which aims to divide the Jewish community from other groups in Latin America.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The Jewish Agency has issued a 60-page Guide to Israel Programs which can be obtained from the Agency, Publications Department, 515 Park Avenue, New York, 10222.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Fair, a pro-Arab militant organization held a six-hour sit-in in a Protestant church in New York and then left as members of the Jewish Defense League converged outside and threatened to enter the building. New York police escorted members of Federated Americans against Imperialism and Racism in the Mideast out of the church to avoid a confrontation between Fair and the JDL.
