RIO DE JANEIRO (WNS) - The Brazilian Government was attacked by a number of Arab states for making it easy for Arab refugees to settle here. The Ambassadors of Egypt, Syria, Lebanon and Alegia reportedly told a meeting of the Arab League that Brazil's relaxed immigration policy aided Israel by encouraging Arabs to emigrate, causing "Palestine to be emptied of its Arab inhabitants.

NEW YORK (WNS) - The American Jewish Committee has issued a booklet, Jewish Organizations: A Worldwide Directory, containing an annotated list of Jewish organizations in 95 countries.

HAIFA (WNS) - The only Israeli-flag passenger vessels to ply the ocean this summer will be two car ferries, the Dan and Nili. The ships are used on a new service between Israel and European ports for the recently formed Zim Passenger Lines, Ltd.

JERUSALEM (WNS) - Israeli Relations with African states has grown since the Six-Day War to the point where Jerusalem had 30 diplomatic missions and 30 development cooperation programs on that continent, Foreign Minister Abba Eban reported.

NEW YORK - The executive director of the National (Eisenhower) Commission on Violence called for a mass civilian effort to curb crime in the United States.

ISRAEL'S 22nd ...

Western Wall in Jerusalem attended by 10,000 persons who watched the lowering of an Israeli flag to half staff. Throughout the nation lights were dimmed in memory of the nation's fallen military personnel and civilians.

(In the United States, Israel's 22nd anniversary was marked with major parades in New York and Los Angeles. In New York, nearly 75,000 marched in a parade sponsored by 300 Jewish school and youth groups and 76 organizations. Floats and banners illustrated the theme: "Israel: Blossoming From 4,000-Year Roots." Police estimated there were about 150,000 onlookers along the parade route who saw three of the four gubernatorial candidates lead the marchers. Only former United Nations Ambassador Arthur Goldberg didn't participate.)

(In Los Angeles two dozen Jewish groups led by the Jewish Federation-Council of Greater Los Angeles and the American Zionist Council sponsored a similar parade.)

NEW YORK -- Favorite Plastic Corporation, an independent producer of polyethylene films in the United States, has announced that it has acquired 100% ownership of Israel Plastics, Inc., Holon, Israel, from P.E.C. Economic Corporation of New York.
