

NEW YORK - Thirty Jewish cadets will be commissioned as officers at graduation exercises on June 3 at four of the United States service academies, Rabbi Edward T. Sandrow, chairman of the National Jewish Welfare Board Commission on Jewish Chaplaincy, announced. At special baccalaureate services, the graduates will be presented with inscribed copies of the Bible, as part of the year-round religious program provided at the academies by Jewish chaplains recruited, endorsed and served by the Chaplaincy Commission.

NEW YORK, "A critical situation of unforeseeable consequences" will develop in the Middle East unless the United States restores the balance of power in that area by providing arms, particularly airplanes, to Israel, according to Prof. Nadav Safran of Harvard University's Center for Middle Eastern Studies.

Professor Safran, who has served as adviser to the White House, the State Department and Congressional Committees, made his prediction in a luncheon speech to the American Jewish Committee.
