Political Hopefuls
CH. BENNETT FOR STATE TREAS.

Charles A. "Chuck" Bennett, Las Vegas Hotel Executive and businessman, has filed his candidacy for the office of State Treasurer. Mr. Bennett is a Democrat and is opposing the incumbent, also a Democrat.

Mr. Bennett feels that the important office of State Treasurer should be a full time position and that his 31 years residence in Las Vegas, plus his vast experience in the hotel industry and various businesses, qualifies him to fulfill the obligations of the office of State Treasurer. He states further that as Chief Fiscal officer of the state he would devote a great deal of time to handle the funds in the most prudent manner, thereby recovering the greatest interest possible to the state.

Bennett has been a member of the Clark County Planning Commission for the past six years, was contributor and still a charter member of the Las Vegas Municipal Golf Course. He was co-chairman of the March of Dimes, which bought the first iron lung for the Clark County Hospital.

CHUCK

He is active in a great many civic and fraternal organizations, a 28 year member of Kerak Temple and the Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital.
