

KIRSCHNER OVERS ABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

We were concerned about the unusual weather in Las Vegas and consulted our usual extremely unreliable source, Lovable Lenny from the Churchill Downs, and he claims that the turbulence is being caused by the Hot Air the politicians are spreading this time of the year.

Love the story that Milton (Stardust) Frank told me about the Scotch burglar who was arrested because he returned to retrieve the brick that broke the window in the jewelry store.

If any of you don't like fun don't pass up the wonderful pair of Thunderbird Hotel shows; our special favorite is the Latin Fire '71. This is one hour of excitement and the music and dancing when added to the beautiful Latin grills make the Thunderbird a must stop.

If you are still in a Latin mood follow me to the Tropicana where Cugat and his Charo hold sway in the Blue Room. The music is excellent and Charo is a delight to the eye and ear.

When they talk about the kids going back to school, it reminds me of the time the asked Johnny Selinsky "which month has 28 days." After thinking Johnny came up with "Every month has 28 days." We'll lay odds that Johnny was right. (Johnny is Sheila's boy.)

Sid Hudson (the famous cleaner in Somerset) always comes up with an amusing tale. He told of the insurance man who notified a woman that she hadn't paid the life insurance premium on her husband for 3 months. She explained that since he died three months back she shouldn't be penalized. We think she is right. Thanks Sid that's a good story and we hope your cleaning shop can keep up the good work that makes it one of the best in town.

Good news Pan players -- the B'nai B'rith Ladies are having their annual tournament with $100 in cash prizes in the Stardust Auditorium on Sept. 12.

Just got through with having an argument with Irv Benson's wife (he's my favorite comic man at the Alladin). We claimed he was one of the few guys that is uglier than we are. His pretty wife differed with us and we are going to have a contest at the next Saints and Sinners meeting on August 24th when we honor our first Jester Sam Landy. This meeting should be a barrel of fun as many other famous comedians threaten to appear to challenge some of the political aspirants. We would love to see the Lamb brothers show up so we can Roast Lamb. Ralph and Darwin are both nice guys and their Irene Robb says about life. He has brought changes in the Sheriff's Department that have resulted in making the Clark County Sheriff's Department one of the best in the United States. He has instigated new programs that in most departments, twice the size of the one here, have not even been considered. Take his bomb detail.

He has men trained to go into an area where there is the possibility of a bomb and they have the knowledge of disarming it. Much bigger cities are just beginning this program.

"I'm not one for talking about all our department has done in the past few years," Lamb said. "I feel the public knows. Results speak louder than words."

Lamb is a Democrat and a member of a politically prominent family. He first started with the Sheriff's Department in the forties and worked his way up to captain before he took over as Sheriff.

"There are a lot of things we could talk about in this interview," Lamb said, "but the main thing I want to get across to the people is that we are working and we are concerned. I feel the people working for me are responsible. They know the needs of the County. They are not reckless in their approach to things, and I don't feel I am either."

When you walk away after an interview with Lamb, you feel sort of like the slogan involving the National Guard. You can sleep easier . . .

opponents should show up to refute the statements that are being made namely that experience means something. Woody Cole, our constable is trying for another term in office and will also be there to try to prove he is the best man for the job. Our County Assessor Jim Bilbray is going to show you that he has saved you and the County money by trying to reduce your taxes. We must leave this up to you to decide. This Saints and Sinners meeting at the Flamingo Hotel promises to be one of our best. Please don't bring your wives because some of the man to man talk gets a little rough. Gotta repeat what Irene Robb says about Sergio Franchi, who opened last night at the Flamingo. As she says he is another Ezio Pinza "One Enchanted Evening". All we can say if we were good looking, could sing as well as he could we would ask for a raise. Yes this Sergio is truly great and he is fortunate that he has the assistance of clever Corbett Monica, who can always make us comedy lovers laugh. This is a great show so don't miss it. We can hardly wait for their Casino theatre to again display the talents of Bell Barth (pardon me - lovely Belle Barth) and the Platters. This combination turns us on.

We always enjoy saying something pleasant about a pleasant stop like the Landmark where a lady told me how nice the chief of security Lee Duckworth was when he recovered her handbag for her.

HUNT NAMED SCHOOL DIR.

Gerald F. Hunt, for four years assistant principal at John C. Fremont Junior High School, has been named Director of the evening high school program by the Clark County Board of School Trustees.

The program will meet from 5:00 to 10:00 p.m. as a separate high school in the Valley High building. So far, nearly 300 students have enrolled for the program, and applications are still being accepted. Interested persons should call 735-0166.

A native of Bunkerville, Hunt, 35, has been with the school district since 1961, serving as a business education teacher at Las Vegas High School before moving to Fremont.

He was graduated from the University of Nevada, Reno, in 1957, then served two years as an artillery lieutenant with the Army. In 1966 he completed his Master's Degree in school administration at Northern Arizona University.
