Political Hopefuls

Metcalf, Democrat for Nevada Senate states, our first what supports this state, tourists and gambling. An attempt must be minority made to keep in line those who are driving away strangers with their gouging, and soaring rates. A healthy economy in Clark County assures money for education, and work for more people. While people are fighting to get women dealers permitconsideration should be ted and many different groups are striving to better conditions for groups the most discriminated against, must be given better opportunities to work and live.

The men, 45 and over; they have to seek lower tremendous amount of and lower levels of experience is being unwork, because their used or belittled.

BRYAN

REV. FRIEDMAN FOR NLV JP

After much prayer and guidance; encouragement from community leaders and his official boards. Rev. Mike Friedman, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of North Las Vegas, 1812 E. Lake Mead Blvd., made his will known to file for NLV J.P.

Born in Brooklyn, New York, his parents moved to New Jersy when their son was five.

Three days after war was declared he received his orders to active duty in the Air Force as a Flying Cadet. In Septmeber of 1942 he transferred to the Infantry and graduated from Officers Candidate School, Ft. Benning, Ga. the service on June 30, 1946 he attained the rank of Captain. At the present time he is a Colonel in the United States Army Reserve.

Friedman played varsity baseball in Jr. and Sr. High and College. He was also on the wrestling team in high school and college. At Cal Baptist College he was elected Vice Presition Department.

in Norwalk, California and a married daughter Francine who also resides in So. Calif. Mrs. Mike Friedman is employed with the Bank of Nevada, Main Branch, 3rd and Bridger and has been there almost thre

Rev. Friedman is acdent of the Letterman's tive in community af-Club. While at seminary fairs. He is on the and college he taught Baord of Directors of school and worked for the NLV 7 - 11 Lions the Buena Park Recrea- Club; NLV Chamber of Commerce; member of Rev. Mike Friedman the Clark County Juvenmarried the former ile Delinquincy Advis-Miss Chickaree Strick- ory Committee and land of Anniston, Ala- Chairman of the Conbama. They have a gress for Community married son, Michael, Progress in NLV.

NEW YORK . . . The Lecutre Bureau of the National Jewish Welfare Board has issued two new publications designed to promote a greater appreciation of Jewish life and culture. Prepared especially for program directors and Upon separation from chairmen of Jewish organizations, the publications are The Jewish Arts and Learning for Jewish Living.

For copies of the two publications and for making arrangements for booking performing artists and lecturers, call or write the JWB Lecture Bureau, 15 East 26th Street, New York, While in school Rev. N.Y. 10010 (Telephone 212-LE - 2-4949).

IRIE-IEILIECT

The people need responsible leadership in an office as important as sheriff of Clark County. That is why we feel Sheriff Ralph Lamb should be reelected.

He has been a law officer for twenty years and sheriff of this county for ten. He has continued to improve the department in every

He has proven his ability time after time, and his past record indicates that he will continue to do so.

A vote for Ralph Lamb is a vote for responsible leadership.

RE-ELECT

CORD OF SERVICE DEDICATED TO CONTINUED GROWTH AND PROGRESS.

PAID & ENDORSED BY 25 YEAR RESIDENT OF L.V.

DEMOCR Nominate a Ca for Governor O'CALLAG Z * WHO CAN WIN IN

ET'S VOTE FOR EXECUTI Mike O'Callaghan is the only canwith experience in Public Admin Mike O'Callaghan is the only cane with experience in administering federal agencies.