REDS ARREST 4 JEWS

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Russian authorities arrested four more Jews last month to raise the number arrested in recent months to 32, authoritative reports reaching here indicated.

At the same time, 87 Soviet Jews charged in a letter that Jews were the only ethnic group in Russia who are ordered in plain terms to assimilate, to dissolve, to disappear among other people." The letter was given to foreign newsmen as was a letter signed by 77 Jews and addressed to the UN. The latter message noted Jews couldn't live full cultural and religious lives or emigrate to their "spiritual homeland, Israel."

The four Jews arrested were friends of a Jew arrested earlier in the year and like him, were in their 20s or early 30s. It was reported that the homes of the four were searched and several volumes of the Jewish Encyclopedia were seized although there is no ban against the publication.

Shortly before the arrests became known, a delegation of Canadian Jewish leaders had met with Premier Pierre Elliot Trudeau and Foreign Secretary Mitchell Sharp and urged the Premier to appeal to Russian leaders on his visit to Moscow next month to allow Jews who wish to go to Israel to emigrate.

And as the arrests were disclosed about 30 Jewish students from New York staged a day-long fast at the Isaiah Wall opposite the UN to protest Russia's treatment of its Jews. About 250 demonstrators and bystanders heard Rabbi Shlomo Riskin of the Lincoln Square Synagogue disclose that on his trip to Russia he was told by Jews there that new "show trials" were being prepared by Soviet officials.

NEW YORK (WNS)---Israel Ambassador Yitzhak Rabin, Sen. Jacob J. Javits, Republican of N.Y., and former Supreme Court Justice, Arthur J. Goldberg, will address the 73rd national convention of the ZOA at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York. Other speakers will include Representatives Phillip M. Crane, Rep. of Ill. and Joseph G. Minish, Democrat of N.J.
