

LAS VEGAS SHOW EAST

KIRSCHNER OVERS KABARETS BY AL KIRSCHNER

We will start off with a typical Irving (Corbs Handyman) witicism about a Belly dancer who gave a moving performance. Irv you better stick to the hardware business.

The Sands Hotel is a must stop. Steve and Eydie are a must. We claim that if they were not married they each would make terrific singers for any big show-room. Besides excellent singing voices, they have a delightful sense of humor, yes, you may bring the youngsters.

Attorney Oscar Goodman defines a criminal as someone who got caught.

Bob and Rose Morris came into Las Vegas from Philadelphia to celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary.

Even though they are staying at the International they insisted on seeing the Lido show at the Stardus on their first night. They loved the show. We gave them a long list of others to see and we asked them to visit downtown Casino Center. We cautioned them about leaving valuables in their room.

Jon (Talent Center), Gregory tells me that the kids that come to his studio come with numerous remarks like Little Debbie was told by her mother to say her prayers and ask that she be made well again. Debbie said, "Isn't that what we are paying the doctor for?"

Did you know that Aerion is the only girl in town who can take care of a complete bridal party? Mel Aire at 624 So. Fremont has added a complete make up Department which means that another new idea is available for brides.

Love the thought that

Sammy Cohen (Santa Anita Race Book) is running for a political office. We have to admit that he is ten lengths ahead of all the other candidates.

To bring you up to date here is what is happening in our Las Vegas. Starting at the Desert Inn where they are featuring Phil Harris and Harry James there are two young kids who entertained me 30 years ago. But they are still good. Then walk carefully across the street to the Frontier where Diana Ross and Corbett Monica set the mood. According to Jimmy Moore in the dice pit, the Circle "F" lounge has the best show in town. We must agree that they rate with the best we have seen.

Marie Floyd called to tell me she is taking a well earned vacation to visit her folks in Alabama and Florida.

Marie is the smiling pretty girl you see at the Palomino Club in North Las Vegas.

Dick (Golden Voice Moll) in the Lido show at the Stardust is taking a sentimental journey. It strikes me that the whole world is tipsy. Just think, we save all year to take a trip away from Vegas, and at the same time people all over the world are saving so that they can come to our town.

After listening to my Miriam's girl friend, Irene, I was reminded of a friend who said if I can only get someone to invest $1,000 I could make some money.

When we asked how much he would make, he said, I would make $1000

Irene Asbyll tells me that this guy said "I'd love to be married to you some day." Irene promptly replied, "O.K. I'll put you on my wedding list."

We must admit the best cleaners in our town are Al Phillips, Sid Hudson and Steiners.

Three good organizations that know how to please their customers. Keep up the good work.

The last time we visited Los Angeles, Sylvia Feldman asked how we liked the weather. We replied, "It was so smoggy, we couldn't tell."

More Kabaret next week.
