EL AL TO ADDIS ABABA

FIRST EL AL PLANE IN ETHIOPIA

resemblance to the Yemenite Jews.

The largest market in Africa is in Addis Ababa. Here, too, are some of the world's most modern buildings, alongside clay huts and thatched roofs. The hardy and adventuresome will want to visit the oldest monastery in the world, at Debre Damo, which is reached by climbing a 60-foot rope.

As an extension of a trip to Israel, a visit to the Land of the Queen of Sheba will add an exciting and unusual dimension to the travel experience. Detailed information about accommodations, shopping, restaurants, tours and transportation, as well as the art, customs and folklore of Ethiopia, is available from El Al Israel Airlines office in this area.

A stately lion, symbolizing the Kingdom of Ethiopia, land of the Lion of Judah, was on hand to welcome a majestic bird of the sky as an El Al Israel Airlines' jetliner recently touched down for the first time at Addis Ababa's airport.

Thus El Al inaugurated its newest, most exotic route. The three and one half hour flight traversing the Red Sea between Israel and East Africa is now regularly scheduled to depart Tel Aviv every Friday morning.

The first personal ties between Israel and Ethiopia were created 3,000 years ago, when the Queen of Sheba paid her historical visit to King Solomon. In announcing El Al's new service Mr. Y. Shrem, the airline's Vice President, Commercial, stated: "The airlink is the logical step following years of goodwill and understanding between Israel and Ethiopia. Our Biblical heritage serves to deepen our affiliations."

Vast, unspoiled and decidedly different, Ethiopia has much to offer even the most seasoned traveller. Among her attractions are big game hunting, a game reserve, museums and sites of ancient towns. The best coffee in the world grows in the rainforests of Kaffa, a southern province. The source of the Blue Nile has a waterfall which rivals Niagara for impressiveness. The Simean gorge "out-grades" the Grand Canyon; while in these mountains, near Gondar, lives the Falasha tribe. These people, whose places of worship are clay huts with thatched roofs and the Star of David on top, bear a strikingly strong

Would you rather not know these 7 warning signals?

1. Unusual bleeding or discharge.
2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere.
3. A sore that does not heal.
4. Change in bowel or bladder habits.
5. Hoarseness or cough.
6. Indigestion or difficulty in swallowing.
7. Change in size or color of a wart or mole.

If a signal persists for 2 weeks, see your doctor without delay. Because many cancers are curable if detected and treated early.

It's up to you, too.
