Coming attractions we particularly like are Belafonte at Caesar's Oct. 29, same date Pat Boone at the Fremont, Robert Goulett at the Frontier Oct. 22, Don Rickles at the Sahara Oct. 27 and last but not least, Lou Rawls checks into the Blue Room at the Tropicana on Oct. 23rd.

Lunching at FOXY'S is full of Yox and Loxx. FOXY'S joint is, as always, a must stop for people who like good food plus a laugh or two. Abe tells the hunting story of Lew Whitney, (Alarmco) boasting that he had just shot an elk. When asked: "How did you know it was an Elk, Lew said, "I found an Elk membership card in his pocket."

We want to address our lady readers, when you buy a fur it runs into a lot of money. If your fur deteriorates and the leather back becomes hard, it is your own fault. Every fur should be cleaned and glazed. This adds to the life of your garment. If you are in doubt, stop in to visit with Frank Robb at the Master Furrier in the Somerset Shopping Center. Frank will do anything within reason to help your fur to look good again.

Just had a pleasant visit with Phil Cohn and his buddy Pat from Washington. We reminisced and wound up watching the Lido dinner show at the Stardust. We enjoyed even tho, it was our fifth visit.

The really funny tale we heard this week concerns Irene Asbyl who was bawling out one of her admirers by saying where would you be if we girls weren't around to sew buttons on your pants. Jack's reply: "If you gals weren't

We hear you, Israel.

Since this is a Democratic year, we gotta tell you that we prefer Cannon to higher taxes that the Repubs have been giving us. Proof Present governor walked into office with a 2% sales tax. It is now 3 1/2%. Why? So far no candidate has come out with an issue that says plainly we like the average--we like the poor--we are going to eliminate all taxes on food. Imagine a poor family not only paying the high price for bread but also an additional 3 1/2% in taxes. Do you know that they are too ashamed to do this in some bigger places like N.Y.? Is this why we are condemned? The first candidate who promises to remove food taxes will have clear sailing into office.

More Kabaret Next Week.
