Judith Florence Bayley is the widow of the late and great Warren Vance Bayley and they have one son, Patrick Kirk, as well as three grandchildren. She was born in Dallas, Texas and her birthday is August 21st; is an Episcopalian, attended Southern Methodist University and has traveled much in Europe and this country. She's Chairman of the Board and President of the Hacienda Hotel here in Las Vegas, and has holdings in many motels and hotels in California including the Hacienda International Hotel at the Los Angeles Airport. She also owns much land in Hawaii, owns the El Rey Operations in Searchlight, Nevada, and the Searchlight Development Company and is now busy building the Hacienda Trailer Estate in Henderson. She also has other extensive holdings around Las Vegas. I understand she has sold all her holdings up at Mt. Charleston. The Hacienda Hotel here in Vegas employs over 500 and it has 650 beautiful rooms and very extensive grounds.

Judy is a believer and is, among others, a member of the Eastern Star, Variety Club Tent 39 and the Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels. The awards given her are much too numerous to mention; they include awards for outstanding service from the Nevada Heart Association, the March of Dimes, and the American Cancer Society. Her greatest hobby is Show Dogs, but other hobbies include charity work, traveling, entertaining and just being downright nice to everyone she meets from the lowliest to the highest. She is donating an Arts Building to the University here in Vegas. No woman in town has given more of her time, energy and so much money to all charitable organizations, and in her 14 years residency here she has endeared herself to the entire population as well as hundreds of thousands of tourists who visit Las Vegas. Judy lives with her lovely mother, Ada Belk, at the Hacienda. Known as "our Judy" she has no peer.

RICHARDS FOR JUSTICE OF PEACE

Judge Walter Richards, who has served for 18 years in the Municipal Court of Las Vegas, is a candidate for Justice of the Peace in Clark County.

His terms scanned a period of the greatest growth in Las Vegas, from a court handling a few cases a day to one with two departments serving almost 150 trials daily.

Here are some of his contentions in seeking the office of Justice of the Peace:

Judge Richards approves the action of the Clark County Board of Commissioners in ordering the future Justices of the Peace paid on an hourly basis.

He agreed that the Justice Court is an important part of our court system, and that it should be a judicial position not slowed down by marriages, and that the court calendar should be cleared.

The Judge said that, while these details are important to him, the prime duty of the court is to protect the people of the community and their rights.

To protect our children and others on the streets from drunk and reckless drivers.

To protect our people further by establishing a realistic bail schedule and by making sure that the punishment fits the crime, so that vicious hardened criminals will not be released to continue to victimize the public.

If cases are improperly dismissed and law enforcement officers are not upheld when they are right, then the very structure of our society is threatened.

To Judge Richards, these are the basic and fundamental duties and obligations of the Justice

Court, and all courts.

Ask yourself this question: If you were going to hire someone to work for you, wouldn't you want to know whether he or she were trained, qualified, and able to do the work required?

When you elect public officials, you are actually employing them, and paying their salaries through taxes and other revenues that the people pay. Shouldn't you be just as careful in selecting a Justice of the Peace, as you would in deciding on a private employee?

The Justice Court could be called the people's court, because it deals directly with more of the people and their problems than any other court.

Judge Richards is a graduate of the University of Redlands and the University of Southern California Law School, and the University of California Institute of Transportation. His record is outstanding. He has more judicial experience than any other judge now serving in Clark County.

ST. LOUIS — A select group of Jewish communal and student leaders from the Greater St. Louis area meets next weekend (Oct. 31-Nov. 1) to explore with international affairs specialists the development of public action programs on the Middle East crisis and the plight of Soviet Jewry.
