'SHOWCAST OF THE STARS'

We will not comment about the election because we know that the best man wins, or as my wife said "Gotta vote for Ralph Lamb" because he is so handsome". Attorney Oscar Goodman claims that a jury is a group of twelve people who are chosen to decide who has a better lawyer. (How true.) We just found out what a joint account means — the husband does the depositing and the wife does the withdrawing. This is a Sol Wolf story.

A very sad note was the untimely passing of Faye Roseman. My Miriam and her girl friends are going to miss this wonderful human being who always had a friendly smile and a cheerful word for everyone. Maury Roseman (Stardust Hotel) is heartbroken as are Faye's two daughters.

Heshie Belafonte is starring at the Caesars Palace. He is not good, he is wonderful. If you can afford it visit Circus Maximus and ask Jess Kirk to help you to get nicely seated.

If you want to meet two nice guys at the Frontier don't neglect a visit to the dice pit where Jimmy Moore and his right hand Bathhouse Sam Rosen are busy watching the action.

Everybody's Entertainer

TIME TO SMILE — Singing star Pat Boone has every reason to smile. His current four weeker at the Fremont Hotel's beautiful Fiesta Room is yet another smashing success in an unbroken skein of brilliant triumphs for the great recording and movie star. His electrifying performances at the Fremont, in fact, are solidifying his stature as an all-time great cafe entertainer. And his scintillating song-alogs are dramatically demonstrating why Boone's record sales have passed the 50,000,000 mark and why his current Fremont Hotel gig is rated as one of Las Vegas' top entertainment "musts."
