

ALPINE THANKSGIVING MENU

Every year since 1950 the Alpine Village Inn has featured their traditional Thanksgiving menu. This year the Alpine now has two locations and hopefully will not have to turn away literally hundreds of people as in the past. Also in the new Alpine across from the International Hotel, a completely new menu will be featured in the Rathskeller. A Typical Pennsylvania Dutch Thanksgiving Dinner. Served as a Smorgasbord and will feature many smoked meats (turkey, ham, chicken) plus fried rabbit and the famous seven sweets and seven soups. Also desserts of Shoo-Fly Pie, Snicker doodles, and Schnitz and Knepp, and as always - All You Can Eat. Entertainment and sing-a-longs after you finish your meal. Call for reservations now.
