still cease-fire.

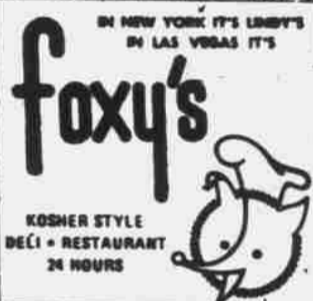

The same sources said Washington had reacted with a "great lack of enthusiasm" to Defense Minister Moshe Dayan's purported plan to have Israel and Egypt withdraw their military forces 10 to 20 miles from the Suez Canal, thus permitting the canal to be reopened to shipping. Washington opposes the plan which would give the Soviet navy easy access to the Indian Ocean, and is reportedly urging Israel not to withdraw a single soldier from the Suez Canal before a peace treaty is signed.

Some 2,100 delegates are expected to attend the five-day conclave of the bi-national organization serving over 3,000 synagogues throughout the United States and Canada with a variety of programs and activities.

NEW YORK (WNS)--The American Joint Distribution Committee distributed four million pounds of food in the first six months of 1969.

LAWYERS TO REPRESENT FALSELY ACCUSED SOVIET JEWS

NEW YORK (WNS)--As protests against the forthcoming showtrial of Soviet Jews continue to mount, leaders of the American Jewish Conference on Soviet Jewry met with officials of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations and made plans for the formation of a committee of lawyers which would attempt to represent the Soviet Jews who will be tried on charges of allegedly attempting to hijack a Soviet airliner.

At the same time, the heads of 27 major American Jewish organizations wrote to Soviet President Nikolai V. Podgorny objecting to the trial as "based on false accusations designed to repress Jewish consciousness." A similar telegram was sent from Brussels by the Coordinating Committee of Belgian Jewish organizations.

In Washington, the families of 10 Leningrad Jews awaiting trial for "Anti-Soviet activities" charged the Soviet Union was punishing them for their desires to emigrate to Israel. While in Rome, Elio Toaff, the Chief Rabbi of Rome, and Judge Sergio Piperno, President of the Federation of Jewish Communities, appealed to Pope Paul VI and Foreign Minister Aldo Moro asking them to intercede with Soviet authorities to prevent the trial.

NEW YORK (WNS)--The American Jewish Congress this weekend charged that S. Ye. Soloviov, chief city prosecutor of Leningrad and "a notorious anti-Semite," was preparing the show-trial case against 31 Soviet Jews on "trumped-up charges of planning to hijack a Russian airplane."

WASHINGTON (WNS)--The Jewish War Veterans of the U.S.A. has offered a reward of $5,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the individuals responsible for the bombings of Federal buildings, churches and synagogues in the city of Rochester and its suburbs.

NEW YORK--Philip E. Hoffman, President of the American Jewish Committee, mourned the death of Jacob Blaustein, Honorary President of the Committee, as the passing of one whose distinguished life had been consecrated "to helping the less fortunate and insuring equality for all his fellow men." Mr. Blaustein, who had been President of the American Jewish Committee from 1949 to 1954, died Nov. 15 at his home in Baltimore.
