HOST PROGRAM

There are currently 36 foreign students attending classes at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas who desire to understand the United States and its people more fully during their limited stay here.

Consequently, a host family program has been organized in which Las Vegans extend to a foreign student an invitation for afternoon coffee, evening meal, holiday visit or any other social affair at which the American and the visitor can share in an exchange of ideas.

Mrs. John Standish of the Community-Campus Committee for Foreign Students at UNLV said 25 families have volunteered already for the host program but that a few more are needed to invite students into their homes. She said application forms are available from the Office of Student Personnel Services in Room 120 of the Campus Union at UNLV.
