1,000,000 SEE TROP SHOW IN 3RD YEAR

Spectacular Bob Bramson joins the spectacular Folies Bergere Christmas night at the Tropicana Hotel, as five new specialty acts from around the world open in the long-running production.

The "now" year edition of the Folies Bergere, enjoying a "wow" year with over a million patrons viewing the current show, has been held over for an unprecedented third year. The five new acts along with some minor production changes will spice up the show commencing Xmas night. In addition to Bramson, "Spectacle d' Animation Philippe Genty," Trio Hoganas, The Veterans, and Berri Lee will join the show.

ALADDIN FUNNY FARM

The Aladdin Hotel has come up with a new promotional twist-- a bevy of curvaceous nurses they call "America's Sexiest Nurses" for the hotel's brand new revue titled "The Funny Farm." It is scheduled to world premiere at the Aladdin's Bagdad Theatre Dec. 26. The gorgeous eye-fuls will have stretchers and first aid equipment for use of patrons in need of treatment for laughing themselves sick. "Funny Farm" patrons will have a good chance to laugh themselves sick since the show is reputed to have more than 1,000 laughs. "The Funny Farm" will offer a brand new concept in show business. Geared to a nutty farm motif, it will feature a breathtaking sequence of far-fetched events, sheer slapstick, scatterbrained stunts and explosive bits of tomfoolery.

NEW YORK--The 1971 annual conference of the UJA began with an appeal to American Jewry to intensify its support of the social and educational programs vital to the people of Israel.
