*Don Tell
Jay Sarno Comes Down*

The unpredictable JAY SARNO, creator and owner of Circus Circus Casino is coming down to the nitty-gritty. According to his chief aid, Don Williams, Sarno is more interested in the nickle-dime action in Las Vegas for the future. Thus the recent creation of Big Wheel, a spacious slot parlor planned for the deserted Mayfair Supermarket in Sahara Shopping Center. Sarno already has gained licenses for 300 of the mechanical bandits plus the rights to a service liquor bar. Nearby Honest John's slots were reported netting between $8,000 to $10,000 each, a year. Locals know that the El Cortez and Hacienda slots average even higher annual takes, and deservedly so. Sarno figures that union and wage problems are definitely on the upswing here but that the price of lubricating oil will stay level. And will he need oil. Not only for the slots but for a giant ferris wheel spinning on top of the roof. Now don't get us wrong. Sarno still believes in the pit action of Las Vegas because he has also queried the city commissioners to extend gaming beyond present boundaries to include Big Wheel. So as the town keeps spiraling with new high-rise casinos Mr. Jay Sarno will keep his feet on the ground for the moment....

Just winding up a SRO gig at CAESARS PALACE is the one and only JOHNNY MATHIS.

NEW YORK (WNS)-- All nine Jewish defendants in the second Leningrad trial were found guilty on charges ranging from anti-Soviet activities to treason and received sentences ranging from 1 to 10 years at hard labor in labor camps. The verdict and sentences were denounced by Jewish leaders in Israel and the U.S.

In Israel, Foreign Minister Abba Eban called the sentence "a shocking miscarriage of justice and distortion of truth." Immigrant Absorption Minister Natan Peled told the Soviet Jewish immigrants assembled at the Western Wall, "It was a cowardly trial. The strength of the Jewish people in the Soviet Union will endure. The Soviet Union will not succeed in its designs." Dr. William Wexler, chairman of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, in an interview aired over the Israeli radio said that American Jewry would re-double its efforts to help Soviet Jews. "Rest assured that we are going to do everything we can," he said.

In New York, Jewish leaders appealed to President Nixon, the United Nations and free peoples and their governments everywhere to

GEOGRAPHY IMPORTANT TO SECURITY

CAMBRIDGE, MASS. (WNW) -- Former Senator Eugene J. McCarthy has denied Secretary of State William P. Rogers' statement that geography is not important to security in the Middle East. In an address to the American Professors for Peace in the Middle East McCarthy said Geography is important to us in Vietnam where we talk of the need of controlling at least two additional countries in order to provide security for the withdrawal of American troops.

Geography -- that is, borders and boundaries -- has been vital in establishing the area of the U.S. And geography--lands and borders--is of vital consideration in the land of Israel and in Israel's self defense."

Paul Price

We had a nightmare. It was horrible. We dreamed Paul Price was elected City Commissioner.

All sorts of visions passed through our mind. Chaos overwhelmed everything. Dragons were eating little babies. Paul kept stuffing bills into his pockets.

Then frantic phone calls came from all over. Cellars were flooded. Bathtubs were running over. Houses were floating away. Switchboards at the Mayor's office, the Governor's and the President's were lighted full blast. Nary a plumber to be gotten.

They were all at Price's house fixing a faucet leak. And Paul showed his appreciation. At the Commissioner's meeting he made a motion to raise plumber's salary to $87.50 a day, plus portal to portal.

Commissioner Coblentz murmured, "That's more than I make with a patient," Paul growled, "Quiet, one more word and I'll refer you to tomorrow's column," Coblentz shuddered, "No, not that."

Outside the plumbers were cheering: "Two, four, six, eight-y seven-fifty, who do we appreciate - nifty. Price, Price, Price," Paul was blushing, while stuffing his pockets with money.

Then there was a woman at a desk answering the phone, "You want to speak to Mr. Price, who's calling." She turns around, "Paul, there's a man who says he's a dealer on the phone." Paul answers, the only dealer I want
