Clark County teachers will have an opportunity to learn some of the new approaches of instructing reading arts to elementary school children in a special one-week seminar starting July 19 at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

The special sound that "The March King: John Philip Sousa" never wrote into his 140 marches will be recreated Sunday, July 4 at 10 p.m. and Friday, July 9 at 8 p.m.

when Channel 10 presents a documentary on the life of the versatile composer-conductor.

"Evening at Pops" returns again every summer - Sunday night, beginning July 11, at 8 p.m., on PBS, Public Television Channel 10.

Order forms for the newly minted 1971 Eisenhower Memorial Silver Dollar are now available from the offices of Nevada Senator Howard Cannon, it was announced. Contact the Senator's offices in the Federal Building in Reno and Las Vegas, or Room 259 Old Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510.

Three times as many high school seniors received diplomas in 1971 as in 1961 in Clark County School District high schools. 3,317 students were graduated in May, 1971, as compared to 1,060 in 1961. An additional 77 adults won diplomas in the District's Adult Education Department this year.

Visiting faculty members from universities all over the United States will supplement the regular instructional staff during 400 summer classes this year at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, according to W. Hubert Johnson, director of summer school.
