TELLING IT LIKE IT IS

could see nationally?

- The legalization of marijuana is a strong possibility.
- The lowering of the drinking age is yet another.
- A revamping of our draft structure seems likely.
- And Creedence Clearwater could be elected president in 1972.
- How about local issues?
- Casinos might be permitted to allow 18-year olds to try their luck while downing some hard stuff.
- Rock festivals could be commonplace in Nevada instead of condemned.
- Parks and recreations areas for teenagers improved.
- Wayne Newton could be elected governor of Nevada in 1974.
- Some of the changes we would like to see in the state are as follows:
- Persistent efforts made by the youth to reduce the level of air pollution in Clark County.
- Additional efforts made to clean up Lake Mead and reduce the harsh level of alkali which we consume each day under the label of fresh tap water.
- Greater attention given to the affairs and activities of our youth in Nevada.
- We believe that the intellect of our 18 to 21 age group was never at a higher level. The passage of the 26th amendment should bring a voting block with more higher ideals for national and local reforms. It will also bring a greater sense of responsibility to our youth which could only lead to a more healthy environment and betterment of our way of life.

TONY BENNETT AT CAESARS PALACE

Singer Tony Bennett returns to the Circus Maximus theatre-restaurant at Caesars Palace for a two-week engagement featuring the master balladeering that has carried him to the pinnacle of show business popularity.

Returning with Bennett will be The Goldiggers, one of America's most unique collection of talented girls, who made their Caesars Palace debut in Bennett's show last October.

Also featured as Bennett's special guest star will be Louie Bellson, jazz drumming's most accomplished instrumentalist. The Nat Brandwynne orchestra will provide the musical backing, with John Bunch, Bennett's musical director, conducting.

From "Because of You" to "I Left My Heart in San Francisco," many millions of stranded hearts have been buoyed because of Bennett. He has sold millions and millions of records and has cut through, above and beyond all trends.

He is that rare masterpiece: The singer's singer, the musician's singer, the listener's singer.

Besides singing and dancing their way to overnight fame on the Dean Martin television program and replacing him with their own summer series, the Goldiggers' meteoric rise has seen them accompany Bob Hope on two of his annual Christmas tours. They now have a bright television future of their own.

Show times are 8:00 p.m. and midnight.
