

Only in Vegas

Charles Turner, former executive of the Sands Hotel, is now at the Riviera Hotel in an executive capacity.

About ten years ago, I called the Dept. of Motor Vehicles asking for a license plate with my initials (had seen this in NYC) and they told me they never heard of such a thing. Imagine, now the income from this type of license plate runs into six figures. The money that was lost, and all because someone had never heard of such a thing. How easy it would have been to check this source of income. But then, powers that be in Las Vegas are usually behind some years.

It has been quite a while since the community had as much fun and a get together as was witnessed and experienced by many invited guests to "toast the Bride and Groom" Marsha and Howard Miller this past Saturday in the beautiful Comstock Room in the Flamingo Hotel. To say that Moe and Lil, mother and father of the Groom had much happiness introducing their son and new daughter to the guests is putting it mildly, they were jubilant. Howard is a practicing attorney and Marsha is a school teacher. Both reside in Los Angeles, Calif. This couple look like brother & sister the resemblance is so striking. There were many out of town guests along with Marshas mother and father. The flowers were lovely and fragrant, all the women were dressed beautifully, the drinks were plentiful and when Moe, father of the groom, gets the bill he will know that many a toast was made to the Bride and Groom. The hot and cold hors d'oeuvres were delicious. It was good to see so many of Howard and Marsha's friends attending this very happy occasion. May this union last for many, many years. Good luck.

Since the Landmark Hotel Beauty Salon has started advertising in the Las Vegas Israelite, the business has increased. They have enough excellent operators so that no one has to wait for hours to get their hair done. They also are excellent when it comes to bleaches (I know) as well as conditioning the hair. Remember you gals that do a lot of swimming and do not protect your hair, you will have a problem, so get started taking care of your hair, and let the operators in the Landmark Beauty Salon do it for you. The prices are right.
