Moves," "Penny Lane," and "Fool On A Hill," to her classic oldies, "Downtown," "Don't Live In A Subway," and "My Love." These oldies, by the way, were all written by a little known but quite wealthy Englishman named Tony Hatch.

Pet Clark's two loudest ovations came from her rendition of the theme song from Jesus Christ Superstar and "You Got A Friend."

Future male guests sitting ringside are in for a treat as Pet sings in their ear, holds their hands and generally coos and woos them. A good solid singer and a fine all around show to be enjoyed by young and old alike.

On the same bill, Sergio Mendes and Brasil '77 (used to be called Brasil'66) liven up the crowd with versions of "Day Tripper," "Fool On A Hill," and "The Look Of Love." Aside from Sergio, the stars of the group are two gals which lead all the singing and can really whack out some tunes.

Around Town... This week our around town exploits brought us to the Ah So Restaurant at Caesars Palace. This is a dining experience long to be remembered. You enter into a Disneyland atmosphere of tall trees, rushing water and fire flies (a-la Disney). Each table is actually a counter surrounding its own cooking grill. You are provided with your own chef who prepares each of your appetizers and main dish and stays with you throughout your entire meal.

The gourmet meal consists of mouth watering filet mignon, fried chicken livers (as only the Japanese can prepare this), chicken rice soup, fried string beans, sweet potatoes, white rice, salad and some unmentionable food items that should not be bragged about in an English-Jewish newspaper.

"FIDDLER" HELD OVER 6 WEEKS

Sam Boyd, president of the Union Plaza Hotel Casino, confirmed that the engagement of the smash hit musical "Fiddler on the Roof" starring Bob Carroll and the 35-member national company has been extended another six weeks.

"Interest in 'Fiddler' has been absolutely fantastic," Boyd said, "and with the advance reservations coming in so heavily, we at the Plaza are delighted to be able to present such fine theatre in Las Vegas."

Since opening at the Plaza on Aug. 10, some 38,000 people have thrilled to the world's most acclaimed musical at "Fiddler's" twice-nightly performances.

Seating for the 8 p.m. dinner show is at 6 p.m.

As Boyd put it, "We have the Number One show in the world at Number One Main Street."
