

NEW YORK--A unique educational program involving American adults as students and Israeli scholars as teachers will start in New York City on Wednesday, October 6. It will subsequently spread to seven other cities across the United States, and conclude two years from now in Israel. It is titled the America-Israel Education Program in Contemporary Jewish Civilization, and is co-sponsored by the American Jewish Committee and the Institute of Contemporary Jewry of Hebrew University in Jerusalem. Participating groups are being organized by AJC chapters in Hartford, Cleveland, Chicago, Detroit, Dallas, Los Angeles and Essex County, New Jersey, as well as in New York.

JERUSALEM (WNS)--One of four Israeli conscientious objectors who wrote to Defense Minister Moshe Dayan that they didn't want to serve because they would then be "oppressors" failed to appear for induction and was arrested.

Rosh Hashanah Message

FROM RABBI ISRAEL MILLER
(Pres. of the American Zionist Federation)

As we approach the Days of Awe, and in fulfillment of our sacred heritage, I call upon the 700,000 enrolled American Zionists to dedicate themselves anew to the strengthening of our Jewish ideals and values. Cognizant of our traditions, committed to the unity of the Jewish people wherever they may be, and concerned with our future as a people with a common destiny - we must all resolve to work even more actively in all phases of American Jewish life, so as to ensure the survival of creative Jewish life in the United States.

We must labor even more zealously towards strengthening our enduring fraternal bonds with the people of Israel, our brethren in the Soviet Union for whose redemption we work and pray, and for the welfare of Jewish communities throughout the world especially those languishing in Arab lands deprived of freedom and means of sustenance, both spiritual and material.

While acting upon these responsibilities, I urge our constituency everywhere, in accordance with the mandates of our faith, to dedicate themselves anew to the ideals of social justice, political equality and human compassion. Let us as Americans and as Jews work and pray for the achievement of peace and tranquility for Israel and for all mankind.

PARIS (WNS)--Arab delegates to the Interparliamentary Union Conference stomped out loudly when Deputy Israeli Health Minister Abdul Azis Zuabi, the first Israeli Arab to attain a Cabinet-level post, rose to speak. They loudly proclaimed, as they banged their way out of the hall, that they would listen to Israeli Jewish delegates, but not to an Arab "quisling."
