Among the 77,297 names of victims of Nazi persecution which appear on the great wall of the Jewish synagogue in Prague, there is one -- Alfred Kantor -- which does not belong there. Kantor survived the hell of Terezin, Auschwitz, Schwarzhede. He lives in New York, where his visual record of those sinister days appears under the simple title, THE BOOK OF ALFRED KANTOR (McGraw-Hill, $17.95).

More than 100 teachers are expected to attend an orientation meeting at the Education Center September 14 in the first step toward becoming an administrator in the Clark County School District. When the selection process is completed in December, an estimated 20 people will go on an approved list from which the school board will make future administrative appointments.
