

LILLIAN WALD INSTALLED IN HALL OF FAME FOR GREAT AMERICANS

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller paid tribute to the "inspired purpose ... understanding heart and outstanding administrative capacity" of the noted humanitarian, Lillian D. Wald, upon her installation in the Hall of Fame for Great Americans at New York University. "The entire life, the career, the ideals and the accomplishments of this gracious lady place her in the ranks of the great Americans of all times" said the Governor in a message read during the ceremony by Prof. Russell D. Niles, director of the Hall of Fame.

"There are thousands of people living today in happy circumstances who owe their position, their achievements, to the Henry Street Settlement or to one of the other organizations she founded and directed for so many fruitful years." Mr. Rockefeller continued. "That Lillian Wald should now be taking her place in your pantheon of the immortals of our country is the greatest satisfaction to all of us who value the humanitarian spirit which is the underlining theme of our democracy." The ceremony honoring Miss Wald, who gained world-wide recognition for her innovations in the fields of nursing, education and social reform, was held at NYU's Town Hall in Manhattan.

Ezra Shapiro

By RABBI SAMUEL SILVER

Remember how Ezra left exile to rebuild the temple in Jerusalem?

Now, another Ezra is going to Jerusalem. He is Ezra Shapiro, of Cleveland, Ohio who is heading for the holy city to head up the Keren Hayesod (Jewish Foundation Fund), the agency which raises money for the upbuilding of the land.

Ezra Shapiro is one of the most cultured, gifted and eloquent men in America. A disciple of the late, great Dr. A. H. Friedland, the scholar par excellence, Mr. Shapiro is drenched in Judaism and Zionism.

A superb lawyer, he once was Cleveland's city counsel. He is as much at home before a supreme court as he is before the ark of the synagogue. His synagogue, by the way, is Park Avenue, of Cleveland, where he taught Hebrew and where his children and grandchildren have received their training.

Mrs. Shapiro is equally prominent in Jewish organizations. She's a Lamport and has been active in national Hadassah.

This ideal Jewish couple will be a splendid link between this nation and our sister-democracy, Israel. Mr. Shapiro will replace the formidable Rabbi Israel Goldstein in his Jerusalem post. We wish the Shapiros well and we wish Rabbi Goldstein continued creativity in his retirement. He can be sure that Mr. Shapiro will carry on the important work with dispatch and efficiency and with the same love of Yiddishkeit that typified the career of the rabbi he succeeds.
