EXPANDED ADULT PROGRAM

The Board of Directors of Temple Beth Sholom announced plans for an expanded and diversified educational program for adults. The general public is invited to participate. Plans include the following: -

The Temple will sponsor a subscription series of three events, to be called "AN EVENING WITH.....", during the months of October, December and February. The first event, on October 21, 1971 will feature a talk by the HON. WINSTON S. CHURCHILL, M. P., grandson of the great W.W. II leader. Season Tickets, to include all 3 events will sell for $12.00 per person; single event tickets will sell for $5.00 per person at the door, space allowing. Further details of this new venture, will be announced shortly. Be sure to register as soon as possible.

Other features of the Adult Education Program will be:

1. Orientation sessions for those hoping and planning for a trip to the Holy Land.
2. Meetings for those interested in collecting and exchanging Israeli coins and postal stamps.
3. A class in Jewish history with its philosophical and controversial aspects.
4. A class in ele-

There is a real need for volunteer help in many activities in the Southern Nevada community according to Margaret Purdue, executive director of the Volunteer Bureau of Clark County, which is open Monday through Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. and interested parties may call 382-5260 during those hours to register. Currently the Bureau is looking for volunteer teens to work with therapists in mental health centers on weekdays between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m., and to help plan monthly birthday parties for elderly patients in the mental health centers. Also, drivers living in the Westside are needed to volunteer their help in driving adults and children to the Easter Seals Clinic, to doctors appointments and to the Mental Health Center, and teen or adult volunteers are needed on Thursday mornings to teach 13 pre-school handicapped children how to swim. Classes are held from 9:45 to 10:30. In addition a volunteer receptionist is needed for the next two weeks to answer telephones at the Mental Health Association.
