'SHOWCASE OF THE STARS'

D.I. DOUBLE HEADER

Jimmy Durante, king of comedians, is back delighting audiences in the Desert Inn's Crystal Room where he opened a smashing four-week engagement this week with special guest star

Abbe Lane. Joining the lovable "Schnozz" in his fun-filled show is long-time pal Sonny King. The charming Pearce Sisters add their musical talents to the exciting production. The indifatigable Durante, after 50 years in show business, never fails to receive thunderous applause from SRO crowds for his famous renditions of "One of Those Songs", "Alley Cat" and his own "Inka Dinka Do". His unique comedy and unmistakable gruff brogue keep the showroom filled to capacity with loyal fans both young and old.

Captivating audiences with her versatile show, songstress Abbe Lane creates musical magic with current hits as well as Latin favorites for which she became famous. Her hilarious take-off on "The Thirties" and "The Forties" keep crowds laughing with glee. Garrett Lewis and Larry Billman, talented song-dance twosome assist Abbe in her entertaining presentation.

This star studded show is scheduled through Nov. 15.

DESERT INN STARS - Jimmy Durante, the dean of show business, opens a four-week engagement in the Desert Inn's Crystal Room October 19. Sharing the bill with the lovable comedian is voluptuous songstress Abbe Lane.
