

ARABS FORCE ISRAELI FIRMS INTO BANKRUPTCY

JERUSALEM (WNS) --Three Israeli subsidiaries of the British Leyland Motors Corp. have gone into receivership. The Corporation owns 20 percent of the subsidiaries stock and controls 45 percent, but refused to invest an additional $1.2 million to buy the additional six percent which would have given it control and even though the government offered to underwrite the loan. Observers, and privately, government officials expressed the belief the Leyland Corp. decision to abandon the plants was due to Arab pressure. The government will attempt to reactivate the plants.
