

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Jordan is receiving arms from the United States, in an "ongoing military relationship" according to the State Department, but the Israeli Foreign Ministry says that the weapons were never shipped through Israel, thus denying reports in the French newspaper Le Figaro.

State Department spokesman Robert J. McClosky said that the statement attributed to Egyptian President Anwar Sadat that American arms deliveries included equipment more powerful than the kind used to deal with Palestinian terrorists and forbidden by American conditions for use against Israel had "no significance." Sadat supposedly told Egypt's only political party, the Arab Socialist Union, that the weapons were intended for use against Syria.

But Jordanian Premier Wasfi Tal told Radio Amman that they were for use against enemies of the Arabs, including liberation of the West Bank of the Jordan and the former Syrian Golan Heights. Tal's speech marks the first formal admission that Jordan received large numbers of heavy arms. Israeli Ambassador Yitchak Rabin told the press upon his arrival for a short vacation in Israel, that American arms shipments to Jordan were within the framework of a campaign to win more friends in the Middle East.

SYRIAN LAW BIASED ON JEWS

UNITED NATIONS (WNS) -- Israeli Ambassador Joel Batommi charged that Syria suspends its general laws insofar as Jews are concerned "so as to prevent the application of such law or any of its provisions to Jews."

In an address to the UN General Assembly's Third Committee, Batommi said Jewish religious life is severely curtailed, most synagogues have been closed and most cemeteries have been destroyed. "Jewish property of whatever nature devolves with the death of the owner to the state," he continued. "Immovable property owned by Jews may not be disposed of by him, even during his lifetime."

Most Jewish schools have been closed, he added, and the use of the Hebrew language forbidden, "which makes the teaching of the Hebrew Bible impossible."

SOVIET PROPAGANDA GROUP WONT TALK

WASHINGTON (WNS) --The 11 members Soviet "propaganda" tour group, which includes four Jews, visiting here on a five city tour, has refused an offer by the

BAR-ILAN NAMES EXECUTIVE VICE-CHAIRMAN

RUBIN R. DOBIN

The appointment of Rubin R. Dobin of Lawrence, N.Y. as Executive Vice-Chairman of the Board of Overseers, Bar-Ilan University in Israel, has been announced by Dr. Joseph H. Lookstein, Chancellor of the University and Albert Parker, Chairman of the Board.

Bar-Ilan University has a student body of 6,000 and a faculty of 650 scholars at its Ramat Gan campus. It is the only Israeli university chartered by the New York Board of Regents.

American Jewish Conference on Soviet Jewry for a "public discussion on the subject of Soviet Jews, and another offer by the Jewish Community Council of Greater Washington to discuss "Jewish life in the US and the Soviet Union" in a "public auditorium, over television, radio, or all three."

On Oct. 27, the group attempted to address a meeting of the Georgetown (University) International Student House Organization but disruptions by members of the Washington Chapter of the Jewish Defense League caused an adjournment of the meeting 15 minutes after the group had been introduced.

Meanwhile, reports reaching London say a Jew, Mikhail Maximovich Deutsch, now undergoing training as a propagandist, will be
