GOLDMANN BRUSHED BY JEWISH AGENCY EXECUTIVE

TEL AVIV (WNS) --The Jewish Agency Executive voted to withdraw an invitation to Dr. Nahum Goldmann, president of the World Jewish Congress, to address a special session of the World Zionist Congress to be held in Jerusalem in January to mark the 75th anniversary of the Zionist movement. In a cable to Dr. Goldmann the Executive said, "in view of the circumstances following the publication of your London statement and after reading the full text of your address," it was voted to withdraw the invitation.

On Dec. 19, Dr. Goldmann told the British Board of Deputies that while he "rejoiced" in the migration of Russian Jews to Israel, it was essential to remember that millions of Jews would remain in Russia and it would be "a crime and a betrayal" of Jews remaining in Russia if Jews elsewhere did not "press for their rights" as Jews. Dr. Goldmann was misquoted in the Times of London and by Reuters, the British news service, as having said "It would be released to go to Israel."

The Executive said that while Zionism had always striven to protect the rights of Jews everywhere, "this does not fit the present situation of the Russian Jews" in which it is "clear that first priority must be given to themselves decided to make aliyah the center of their struggle and rejected any other solution... therefore the majority of the Executive members thought it would be inappropriate that you should be the sole or main lecturer in evaluating the 75 years of Zionism."

LONDON (WNS)--Jewish sources in the Soviet Union have reported attempts are being made to revive interest in Birobidjan, a province in Eastern Siberia which borders on China, by advertisements in Soviet newspapers calling it the "future homeland of the Jews" where they can enjoy "a Jewish cultural atmosphere."

PARIS (WNS)--In a statement to Morocco's Jewish leaders, Premier Karim Lamrani assured them that Jews were considered to be fully responsible and privileged citizens of Morocco and "there shall be no discrimination among Moroccan citizens whatever their religion."
