

Only in Vegas

By Helene Stadler

When Judy Bayley left us on Friday, Dec. 31, 1971, a part of Las Vegas went with her. She meant so much to so many of us personally and to every charitable and civic cause, she will be missed and remembered for years to come. May she rest in peace.

Elaine and Steve Cooper are the proud parents of a bouncing baby boy born Dec. 31st. His name is Sean Lawrence @ 8 lbs., 4 oz. Morris (Exec. at the Landmark Hotel) and Faye Glazier are the proud grandparents.

The Israelite received a letter stating Fremont Street merchants were our advertisers, and why don't we write something to help get the bus service back. While our editorial policy is not dictated by our advertisers, there are many advantages in the buses bringing riders directly to Fremont Street. Public transportation routes should be determined for the convenience, not accessibility.

We received a call from Rev. Dr. Philip Hiat, Rabbi of Mt. Neboh Congregation in N.Y.C., requesting assistance in contacting the Fleishman Foundation, which he believes is located in Las Vegas. Rabbi Hiat has a 30-volume collection of rare Biblical writings including the Scriptures translated from the Greek into Latin by Martin Luther before the Protestant Reformation and a compilation of 15th-Century Roman Catholic law. Also included is Luther's translation of the Old and New Testaments dated 1529. The collection, valued at several million dollars, is to be sold and proceeds donated to medical and social welfare charitable causes.

Robert Ukeiley was accepted at Georgetown U., School of Dentistry, in Wash. D.C. He will commence in the fall after graduation this June from U. of N. in Reno.

The official opening of "Oil Painting Impressionism" by Irene Blaser will be on January 13 at the Herzl Institute, 515 Park Ave., in New York City. According to Art Coordinator Philip Gutride the showing will last until Jan. 30.

Southern Nevada Communications Corporation, a non-profit, religious and educational corporation, has just been granted a license to operate Radio Station KILA-FM, Henderson, Nevada.
